

Exotica-ROM→, by OLIVIA

® Copyright, 1989, 1990 Olivia De Berardinis

All Rights Reserved

All works on this CD-ROM are copyrighted. None of the files are Shareware or public domain. Distribution of any of these files in any medium is strictly prohibited according to U.S. copyright laws.

Gazelle Technologies, Inc. dba EDUCORP is the exclusive licensee of Olivia's works on magnetic media. EDUCORP may be reached by phone (619) 259-0255, FAX: (619) 259-0367, or mail:

EDUCORP

531 Stevens Avenue, Suite B
Solana Beach, CA 92075

The Exotica-ROM→ Concept

EDUCORP is proud to present over 100 images from the internationally-acclaimed artist, Olivia. With CD-ROM technology, we can present vast amount of large files in one compact volume. We hope that the success of Exotica-ROM→ will spawn more publications of artist's works in digital form.

Olivia Biography

Olivia De Berardinis is an artist with a wonderfully deep, vibrant feeling for the feminine form. There is a determined elegance to her approach, its boldness. It's really within the traditional fantasy, within the eros. She celebrates the essential ego and the insatiable libido of mankind. This is her talent, indeed, her artistry.

Olivia was born in California in 1948. She was raised on the eastern seaboard. In 1966 she came to New York to attend the School of Visual Arts. She recently moved her studio to Los Angeles. Olivia's technical virtuosity includes works in pencil, gouache, pastel, acrylic, oils, and watercolors, utilizing brush and airbrush. Her influence is legion. Olivia's artwork appears in periodicals worldwide, and she is a regular contributor to Playboy Magazine.

Robert Bane Editions, Los Angeles, is Olivia's representative in the fine arts.

All artwork, reproduction rights, and copyrights are the exclusive property of Olivia DeBerardinis and Ozone Productions, LTD. For information contact:

Ozone Productions, LTD
P.O. Box 4153
Pt. Dume Station
Malibu, CA 90265

Olivia's work is available in many formats. For information on limited edition reproductions and original artwork contact:

Robert Bane Publishing
8025 Melrose Ave.
Los Angeles, CA 90046
(213) 205-0555

For information on greeting cards, calendars, and the book (not yet available), send $2.00 for a catalog to:

O Card Corp.
P.O. Box 111
Roslyn, New York 11576
(516) 621-8484