

SPACE QUEST II - VOHAUL'S REVENGE!!!!

The following hints are only from what I gathered playing Space Quest II. Although I completed the mission I did not have the maximum amount of points.

First of all, you start the game off cleaning up the construction mess in the space bay. Your watch will beep. Look at watch. Don't worry about the broom. Press C, after the man is finished talking press some other buttons.

To get out of the space bay, just walk up the walls until you are in the circle on the ceiling.

When you are 'whisked away' into the airlock, you are going to be decontaminated. After that, go over to the hangers and get suit, or wear suit. Then go over to the next to last locker and open locker. Then type get all. Walk over to the next screen.

The boss will yell at you now. When he's yelling at you he'll tell you to go to the shuttle that just landed and clean up someone's barf. To get there, get to the platform on the upper left hand corner of the bottom floor. This platform will take you to the shuttle level. It'll automatically take you over to the completed space bay.

Don't worry about messing with the hose or the gas tank. You will not gain any points by doing so. You should just walk right into the shuttle. You will get beaten up by two guys, then taken to Vohaul.

Vohaul is going to tell you about his salesmen that he is going to send down to earth. After he is finished talking to you he will get two of his men to take you down to Xenon. When you are on Xenon you will be taken by air car.

During your trip the car will run out of gas, so the car falls and crashes. You will be the only survivor. Now, the first thing you must do is go to the wrecked ship and press the button. This turns off the homing device. Then go to the guard on the ground and get the keycard. There are mushrooms on the screen to the right, but don't touch them they will eat you. There is a trap door on the right side of the screen, denoted by the dots on the ground. Take the path on the upper left of the screen.

About 10 seconds after you reach this screen, you will hear some distant sounds. Walk to the screen to the right. When you get there, there will be a little pink man hanging on a rope by the foot. Get in front of the little man and untie the rope. After the creature is released, he will run off, let him go.

Now you can go order what you've always wanted, a terrion beast mating whistle. To do this, you will have to walk one screen to the left. From here, you need to climb up the path and then go left right in front of you will be the mailbox. Walk over to in and insert form in slot. It will shake and make some noises then the whistle will come out. Get the whistle.

The next thing you have to do is get some berries. You need to go one screen to the right. Walk down the path, then go one screen to the left. Go up one screen. The same old pink monster will be picking some berries. The only thing you have to do is make it through the plant maze. Don't touch the vines, they will eat you. After you have done that, get in front of the berry bushes and pick the berries. Then you have to walk through the maze again.

You need to go to the swamp. You will have to go down one screen from the berry bushes. Walk over to the four balls on the ground, don't get too close, type get spore. Go right one screen. Climb up the path and go right. The pink guy will be there again. He's rubbing berries on his body, so that's what you should do. so rub berries on your body. Then just walk into the swamp. The monster will still come after you, but don't worry he'll spit you out. When you are on the second screen of the swamp, you must do something very important, get in the middle of the screen. Then go straight up. If the game hasn't told you to start swimming yet, move around in that area until it does. When you are swimming hold your breath and dive. Now your under water. Follow the tunnels until you get up into the room. in that room will be a gem, so get the gem. Now swim back out to the shore on the right.

There's a canyon on the next screen without a bridge across it. So you will have to make one. Climb up the dead tree, look inside of the tree, it should fall across the canyon. tah-dah! You now have a bridge, crawl across it.

This time your the bait for someone. There is a booby trap on the screen to the right, so go right. One of the trees on the right side has a booby trap on it. Just walk around the trees until you are taken away.

Now you should be locked up in a cage. The monster is getting ready to cook you. Type talk to monster. If he doesn't come then wait until he does. When he gets close to the cage, throw the spore. The spore will explode and kill the monster. Search the monster, you should get a key. Now get the rope sitting on the boulder next to the cage. Go back to the screen where the canyon and your bridge is. (up, left, left.).

Walk in front of the log across the canyon and crawl on log. When you are in the middle of the log tie rope on log. Climb down the rope. Climb down the rope. Get all the way down to the bottom and stop when your feet are at the end. Then type swing. Keep on swinging until the monster swings his arm at you twice. Then when you are over on the other side press F6 to let go. Walk into the cave.

Hold the gem to light up the cave. Follow the path until you fall down the trap door. When you have successfully completed your fall, get the gem which had fallen out of your hand. Go down a screen. This is the pink peoples kingdom. The king of the pink people will tell you a password. So walk over to the two pink people and type word. They will move a rock revealing a secret passage. Climb down the passage. When you are down there, type put gem in mouth. Keep going down and right or combinations and find your way out. When you are out you will be in a cave with water. Follow the stream until you are at the screen with two tunnels at the top. Take the one on the right, go into the whirlpool. You will come out a tunnel in the side of the mountain and land in more water!

Now you need to go one screen to the right. Blow the whistle, but stay in the water. When the beast comes out go to the screen to the left and then back to the right. There will be a big hole. Go through the hole and keep going up.

Hide behind the bush. Wait for the guard to go behind one of the posts and then run behind another bush. Wait until the guard goes behind another post and then run under the platform. The elevator is on the post to the right. Insert the keycard, when the guard is facing the other way, and enter the elevator. The elevator will take you back to the ship you landed on. The hatch for the ship is on the back. open the hatch and then enter the ship. To fly the ship press power, turn attitude dial, and press ascent. Then hold the down key until your in space. When you are flying, Vohaul will set a tractor beam on you and pull you back to his asteroid. When you get to his asteroid get out of your ship and go to the right.

You should now be on a screen with an elevator, get in the elevator and press three. There is no floor two.

1. When you come across the bathrooms it doesn't matter which door you go through.
2. When you are in the bathrooms all you can get is toilet paper.
3. There is no way to release the monsters in the cells on certain levels.
4. Only one monster will come out of the cage w/o anyone opening the door. Be sure not to let the monster kiss you. (the punishment will not happen right away, but at a very bad time in the game.)
5. Enter each door you come across. You can type: Examine room or search room to find objects inside of them. You need the basket, the plunger, the toilet paper, and the glass cutter.

After you have completed your search of each level, you need to go back to level one. When you are there go back to the screen where your ship is parked. Walk down the middle aisle when you are down there two walls will pop up from the floor/ceiling, trapping you in a small area. The floor will start to move revealing acid. When the floor is a little past the mid-way mark type put plunger on wall. You will stick to the wall until the floor closes again. Type let go of plunger now get under one of the sprinklers, type put paper in basket, then put basket on floor, and light paper. Now the sprinklers should go off and short circuit the wallbots to the left and right. Now walk to the right, don't stop, walk into the wall on the far right. A door revealing Vohaul's chamber will open. Enter the room and walk up the path leading to Vohaul. Vohaul will set off his miniaturizer, with its target being you. When it has completed its mission it will put you in a large glass jar. To get out you have to use the glass cutters that you found in one of the rooms. After you are out enter the vent on the left. Vohaul's life support system will be in there, you need to shut it off. You need to press the button on the back wall. After you have done that get out of the vent. Vohaul is now dead, you need to get yourself large again. There is a little path to the left, walk across it to the other screen. You should now see a big keyboard. Type this in: "Type enlarge". After you have done that walk back to the screen with the vent and jar you were captured in. A beam should be coming down, walk into the beam. This will turn you big again. Once you are big again, go over to Vohaul, search Vohaul. There should be a code written on the back of his hand (shsr). Look at the monitor on the left of the console. Type in the code, this will abort the clone launch. there is a little path to the right, walk up it to the other screen. When you have done this there will be a box inside the tube. Open the box. you will get an oxygen mask. Wear the mask. Walk through the whole passage, at the end will be a long corridor. Go to the left, go to the pods and the robot, when you come across the first escape pod door press the button, then type enter pod. You must do this fast or the robot will electrocute you. At this point I suggest saving the game, because you will probably die the first few times, and when he starts his chase, you can keep running until you reach the pods again but they will all be gone. Once you have launched the pod type look at pod. Go to the sleep chamber and type open chamber, then get in chamber. You will fall asleep.

CONGRATULATIONS! YOU HAVE SOLVED SPACE QUEST III!
