

Jewish Feasts or Festivals of the Bible:

Celebrated by Orthodox Jews even today the ten Old Testament Jewish feasts are high holy days and are used as occasions for public worship. They include:

Feast of	Celebrated on	Reason for	Reference
The Passover	14th day of Abib or Nisan, one day	Saved from Death in Egyptian Plague	Lev 23:5
Unleavened Bread	15th day of Abib or Nisan, lasts one week	Exodus from Egypt	Lev 23:6-8
First Fruits	After Harvest, one day	Giving Thanks	Lev 23:9-14
Pentecost	50 days after Passover lasts seven days	Wheat harvest	Lev 23:15-22
Feast of Weeks	lasted one day	Remembrance of Slavery in Egypt	Deut 16:9-12
Trumpets or New Moon	1st day of 7th month (our Oct.) one day	Marked Jewish Civil New Year	Lev 23:23-25
Day of Atonement National Day of	10 days later one day	Day of Mourning and Repentance	Lev 23:26-32
Tabernacles or Ingathering	5 days later lasted eight days	Protection in the Wilderness	Lev 23:33-43 Deut 16:13
Lights	25th of Kislev (Dec.) lasted eight days	Temple Cleansed
Purim	13th and 14th day of Adar	Deliverance by Esther from Haman	Esther 9:1-10