

Adding New Category

This part of the system gives the system owner the ability to extend the business capacity to offer various categories for selling. This is also provided with a log-in security function.