

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY Genealogical Society Bulletin

VOLUME 16, NUMBER 1

[Founded Sept. 1969, Incorporated Nov. 1983]

SEPTEMBER 1984

WE'VE BEEN WAITING 350 YEARS FOR THIS

Come and celebrate Maryland's 350th anniversary with us on Wednesday, September 5. This kick-off program for our new season of meetings will honor the founding of Maryland in 1634.

Our main speaker will be JANE EAGEN, a public elementary school teacher and historian, who will show the "official" slides of the history of this state, to which she will add her pertinent remarks. This should be a painless way to learn about Maryland's heritage.

Ruth Stultz, program officer, reports we will also recognize the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of the Prince George's County Genealogical Society, in September 1969. Several members have been associated with our group since its beginning.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. with refreshments and conversation, followed by our speaker and business meeting. The place: Greenbelt Branch Library's meeting room, on Crescent Road in Greenbelt. Visitors are always welcome.

A FEW WORDS FROM

OUR PRESIDENT -----Ed Wright

Welcome back.
We missed you.
Hopefully you were able to fill in a few gaps, gain further insight into your family's history, copy a few tombstones, attend the Mid-Atlantic Genealogy Conference, write an article for the BULLETIN, etc. Well neither did we --- but we tried. And we're anxious to hear from your experiences. Perhaps you were able to do some of the things we missed.

Judging from our Council meeting we have a wide range of activities in the making. We look forward to a year in which we can contribute to the knowledge and enjoyment of the entire membership.

"GENEALOGY -- Tracing yourself back to people who were better than you are."

We appreciate the great interest and many kind comments concerning our publication "STONES AND BONES: Cemetery Records of Prince George's County, Maryland," which emerged from the printers in March! Although we aim for perfection, some errors are bound to crop up in a book of this size. Listed below are the few that we have found so far, plus some additional stones that have been found. You may make pen and ink corrections in your copies or insert a copy of this page. Please notify the Editor if you find any additional stones, cemeteries, or errors, and they will be published in future issues of the Bulletin.

THE CASE FOR CITY DIRECTORIES

By F. Edward Wright

I happen to be working on two projects at the moment which could provide some interesting interplay. First I am compiling all the pension and bounty land claims of the Prince George's veterans of the War of 1812, and secondly, I have just completed reprinting the first City Directory of Washington, D. C., dated 1824. In noting the sizeable number of veterans and widows who moved to Washington after the war I wondered if I could find these veterans and their widows in the directory and then work each source against the other.

For instance, take the case of one War of 1812 widow I found in the Washington directories. She was the widow of John L. Suit. Although you may have no interest in the Suit family (for which the town of Suitland is named, by the way), you may be interested in how much information is obtainable from these two records, especially when using them together.

The pension application made by Mary E. Suit in 1878 (age 74, resident of Washington), shows that at the time of his enlistment under Captain "Joe" Isaacs, her husband was 5 feet, 7 inches tall, had blue eyes, and dark hair. She states that they married in Washington D. C. on April 5, 1821; the minister was Reverend John Chambers. Her maiden name was Mary E. Boteler; neither had married previously.

In looking through the 1824 Directory we find a John Suit, shoemaker, located at east side of 7th St East, near the Navy Yard. But let's not stop here.

Claimants were required to support certain facts with additional affidavits from knowledgeable persons. In her claim, Mary Suit had to prove the death of her husband which she stated, occurred on July 28th 1869 in Washington, D. C. Persons attesting to the veracity of her statements included her brother, John Boteler (born circa 1801) and his wife, Eliza Boteler (born circa 1802). In the 1878 application John and his wife stated that they were living at 540 7th St, Washington D.C. (The addresses of witnesses were required in the widow's claim.) Returning to the 1824 Directory we find a John D. Boteler, gunsmith, located at the north side of D Street North, between 6th and 7th Streets West. It seems likely that this is the same person as the witness above. In addition to the names of her brother and sister-in-law, the pension application reveals a statement from her son, Henry C. Suit (born circa 1845), whose name pops up again in the Washington Directory of 1864.

As we continue to examine the Washington directories in succeeding years we can observe that by 1864 the Suit family has moved to 440 I South. John L. Suit is still a shoemaker; living with them is their son Henry C. who is a moulder and William H. Suit, another likely son, who is a mechanic. In the 1867 Directory William H. is a carpenter. The approximate date of death is confirmed in the 1869 Directory where Mary E. Suit is listed as a widow of John L. Suit. At this time Henry and William (now a blacksmith) are boarders, living with their mother at a new address on L Street.

THE CASE FOR CITY DIRECTORIES (con.)

Did I exhaust the usefulness of these records in this case? Not likely. For example, the 1824 Directory contains a Charles Boteler, police officer, living nearby on the east side of 8 west between Penn avenue and D Street North. Is he related to Mary E. (Boteler) Suit?

Hopefully I have shown to some degree the usefulness of these two records singularly and in conjunction with each other. I concede that the information contained in the city directories is largely contained in the censuses. But later censuses are not likely to be indexed and names more likely to be misspelled whereas the directories were fairly accurate. And most importantly, perhaps, city directories were issued much more frequently, often annually.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

On Sunday, July 24, 1983, the writer received a phone call from an unidentified woman in Maryland. She stated that she was searching for a descendant of an ANDERS ANDERSON. She also said that this descendant lived in the Ironwood, Michigan area, and that she was directed to talk to me, Arthur Anderson. She further stated that this Anders Anderson (could also be spelled Andors) had lived on an island off the island of Cuba.

I informed this woman that I did not think I had a relative by that name and the conversation concluded.

However, I became curious after the phone call and began to research my father's family and found, through old records, that my now deceased father did indeed have a brother named ANDERS.

If you or your office has had anything to do with the phone call or know any other information regarding this ANDERS ANDERSON I would appreciate hearing from you.

Yours very truly, [signed] Arthur W. Anderson.

Also, in this issue is an abstract from the Winter 1983 WILTSHIRE FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY, by Marcelle Jay, PhD, Moorfields Eye Hospital (England), on genealogy and hereditary eye disease. Dr. Jay relates to us that "X-Linked transmissions" is due to one abnormal gene carried on the X chromosome, and that carrier daughters have a 50% chance of having an affected son, and a 50% chance of having a daughter who is a carrier. Several diseases are known to have this kind of transmission, one of which is X-linked retinitis pigmentosa, a disease causing blindness in males and for which there is no satisfactory treatment.

Book Reviews

By Shirley Langdon Wilcox C.G.

THE MAXEYS OF VIRGINIA, A GENEALOGICAL HISTORY OF THE DESCENDANTS OF EDWARD AND SUSANNAH MAXEY by Edythe Maxey Clark. Baltimore. Gateway Press, Inc. 1980 968pp. A gift of the author.

The immigrant ancestor, Edward Maxey, is first found mentioned in a Henrico Co., Virginia Minute Book in December 1720. His wife was named Susannah and they had six sons and two daughters, all of whom were probably born before the 1720 Minute Book record. Edward's will was probated May 1740, Goochland County, Virginia and Susannah's was probated September 1743 in the same county.

The author has divided the book into chapters, each tracing descent from one of the children of Edward and Susannah. Material is carefully footnoted at the end of each family sketch, making it possible for readers to go directly to the original source if they so desire. At the end of the book are four pages of bibliography and eighty-nine pages of index. It is obvious that this material was carefully researched and it is sure to be appreciated by those with an interest in this surname.

CHEROKEE COUNTY HISTORY 1836-1956, VOLUME II by Mrs. Frank Ross Stewart. The Birmingham Printing Company, Birmingham, AL. 1959. 483pp. A gift of Ruth Stultz in the name of Mrs. Frank Ross Stewart.

This volume contains lists of various government officials since the beginning of the county. For many of these officials there is a short biographical sketch giving the names of parents, spouse and children. Date and place of birth, marriage and death is also often included. Those interested in this county will find much valuable information.

GENEALOGICAL COMPUTING - THE BEGINNING by Paul Arthur Anderock, Ph.D. Data Transfer Associates, Inc. 1984. A gift of Laird Towle.

Most of the material in this book consists of articles previously published in the author's periodical, GENEALOGICAL COMPUTING. For new or non-subscribers this book offers the more important articles from the periodical in one easy to use and refer manual. It is aimed at family researchers who need to learn how to use a computer as a tool. It would also be helpful reading for those who have not yet purchased a computer who need to know what to look for when buying hardware or software. An index at the back of the book adds to the usefulness of this book.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC. MEETING
6 JUNE 1984

The meeting was called to order 6 June 1984, at 7:25 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland by President, James A. McCafferty following the half hour hospitality period.

The President introduced Jean Sargent, Editor of STONES AND BONES who presented certificates of appreciation in recognition for those helping with the STONES AND BONES publication. Certificates of appreciation were also presented to those who worked on the Surname File.

James McCafferty and his daughter, Bridget, presented the first Jane Roush McCafferty, C.G. award to Jean Sargent for her outstanding work for the Society and for her excellent work done on STONES AND BONES. A special welcome was extended to Jane McCafferty, our former Editor of the BULLETIN, who was able to attend the meeting. The president thanked Bill Miller for Video taping the program.

Speakers for the meeting were Jean Sargent, speaking on Cemetery hunting and Ed Wright, speaking on Prince George's County Veterans War of 1812. After a question and answer period the business meeting began at 8:15 followed by a welcome to members and guests.

Minutes of the 2 May 1984 meeting were approved with one correction. In the sixth paragraph "Freeman Morgan, Chairman for the nominating committee, reported the slate of officers for the coming year" should have read, "Freeman Morgan, Chairman for the nominating committee, reported the candidates for the coming year."

UPDATE ON JANE R. McCAFFERTY, C.G.

As we go to press, Jim McCafferty reports that Jane has through her strong constitution and spirit outlived all projections, but the future is still very grim. After her third chemotherapy Jane was visited by a paralysis on her right side. She returned to NIH for evaluation and indicated to Jim and their daughter, Cindy, that she wanted to come home.

Jane returned home on 7 August and with round-the-clock nursing care remains bedfast. When she first learned about the outcome of surgery she quickly calculated that she would not live to her birthday, 2 October. In spite of the predictions she appears to be doing so.

Jane and her family thank our members and friends for their cards, phone calls, visits and prayers, the latter of great sustenance for Jane. As a good genealogist she noted that she will be the youngest of her line to succumb. Interestingly, following a medical genealogical talk at the National Genealogical Society meeting at Archives last year, Jane charted the reasons for death in her immediate ancestor family. She noted that none had died of cancer and all lived to ripe old ages. Her favorite Aunt Rosie lived to 99 1/2 years!

LOOKING FOR GOLD RUSH ANCESTORS?

If you have ancestors or other kin you have lost track of during the mid-nineteenth century, you might consider that they went West looking for gold with the "Forty-niners."

Ann Wellhouse, well-known genealogist from the Washington area, will present a talk on SEARCHING FOR GOLD RUSH ANCESTORS at our next meeting. It will be held Wednesday, October 3, at the Greenbelt Branch Library, 11 Crescent Road in Greenbelt.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. with refreshments and an opportunity to talk with other members. The program will commence at 7:30 p.m., followed by our regular business meeting. We have use of the meeting room until 9:30 p.m. The event is free and open to the public. Come and join us.

IT'S RENEWAL TIME

The 1984-1985 Society year began July first. Don't forget to send your dues for the new year. We would not want you to miss your next issue of the BULLETIN. (See back page for dues information.)

LOOKING IN ALL THE WRONG PLACES

At one of his talks at the Mid-Atlantic Genealogical Seminar this summer, Milton Rubincam made reference to looking for sources in the "wrong" places. His point was that a great deal of information lies in places where you might not logically expect it.

On several occasions I have been surprised to find material in an unlikely place. While casually glancing over the Dorchester County Genealogical magazine I found a chancery court case involving the brother of my gr-gr-gr-grandfather. In it there were references to my ancestor and his children. Yet my ancestor had lived in Caroline County.

While combing through early (1789) Delaware newspapers I found an item which mentions a Gavin Hamilton in Chester County, Pennsylvania. When I saw it I was reminded of a Captain Gavin Hamilton in the 1812 militia of Prince George's County. I dare say that when I research further it will turn out that Gavin Hamilton or his father migrated from the Wilmington area to Prince George's County.

Many times we attend seminars or meetings whose topics seem unrelated to our present interest only to find a topic pertinent to our own investigation. Or perhaps more likely, some person one meets casually turns out to shed light on some key question.

Now to the best of my knowledge I have no German or Western Maryland roots. --- I guess that's all the more reason for me to attend the upcoming Seminar on Western Maryland Genealogy at Gaithersburg (October 6th). I'll look for you there.

FREE FAMILY REGISTRY
SERVICE OFFERED

SOCIETY SUPPORTS AGF

The Family Registry is a new service offered without charge by the Genealogical Department of the Mormon Church. If you are researching an individual or with a family organization, you can register so others may contact you to share information. To register, use form PFGS2501 and PFGS2512 (for family organizations). You may obtain these forms at the Genealogical Library in Salt Lake City, at any of its branch libraries, or write: Genealogical Department--Family Registry; Fourth Floor, West Wing; 50 East North Temple Street, Salt Lake City, UT 84150.

A separate form must be entered for each name, but do not register grandparents, living persons, or immediate family organizations centered around living individuals. If you do register, you are expected to respond to others who wish to coordinate with you.

The Family Registry is being provided only for the exchange of genealogical information among family researchers. It is not intended for mass registration or mass contacting of registrants for commercial purposes. Microfiche copies of the registration forms and an index of the registry will be available for searching at the Genealogical Library at Salt Lake City and at branch libraries. Although it is sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon), it is anticipated that the greatest use of the service will be by non-members.

A limited number of the forms for individuals to register will be available at our meeting in October and on hand in our Prince George's County Genealogical Society Library.

In response to our call for gifts to support the National Archives Gift Fund, 27 of our members responded with donations totaling $131.00 for this program year (and did exceed the minimum challenge goal of at least $100). The check consolidating all our gifts was written and mailed to the Federation of Genealogical Societies on 1 June 1984. Our sincere thanks in behalf of the Society, as well as all genealogical researchers, for your generosity.

A letter was received with one of the checks for the AGF; which, we believe, expresses the way a number of our members feel about supporting the National Archives. The letter is quoted in part below:

"Dear Mr. Reep:

It was not until I read your article on the Archives Gift Fund in the Society's Bulletin...that I learned such a fund existed.

I've often wondered why there wasn't some means whereby one could contribute toward the expenses of maintaining the research facilities at the Archives. It is such a small number of the tax paying public that has access to the facility that I'm sure many of them using the facility would like to share in the operating expenses through volunteer contributions rather than asking the public as a whole to fully support the function with their taxes...

I'm enclosing a check for $50, which would probably equal what I would have given if I had contributed $1.00 for each time I visited the Archives..."

Although the check has been sent for this program year, donations for the Archives Gift Fund are accepted at any time.

EARLY PRINCE GEORGE'S RECORDS TRANSFERRED TO ANNAPOLIS

By Phyllis Luskey Cox

When I was at the Courthouse for Prince George's County, Maryland, at Upper Marlboro, on 30 August 1984, I learned that all land records for the county prior to 1840 have been transferred to the Hall of Records in Annapolis. The land records had been located on the first floor of the courthouse, in a large room where the title searchers work. Although the county was formed in 1696, now the records at the courthouse begin with Liber J.B.B. No. 1; first deed in it was enrolled 15 May 1840.

I checked the microfilm on the counter (where you pay copy fees, etc.) and saw that microfilm copies begin with Liber A.B. No. 1, ca. 1819.

The courthouse still has handwritten indexes, stored in the large room: 1696-1803 (very faded), 1803-1840 (pages are coming apart), 1840-1884 (index is a photocopy).

I spoke with Dorothy "Dottie" Welch who is in charge of Land Records regarding the books being transferred to the Hall of Records while the indexes remained at the courthouse. Ms. Welch said she would consider transferring the indexes to 1840 to the Hall of Records as well. I don't think she realized the courthouse still had the indexes.

A month or so ago when I was at the Hall of Records I noticed they had microfilm of the index to land records 1696-1803; however, it was being used by another researcher. The handwritten index at the courthouse has pencil additions, changes, etc. and the particular entry I was interested in had been added -- in pencil -- in that index: Book I, folio 406, John SWANN from Samuel EVANS, ca. 1720s. Not having the manuscript index near the records made the search difficult.

[Editor's Note: We hope the above information will save some researcher a wasted trip to the courthouse, expecting the early land records to be there. It is too bad the courthouse has not retained a microfilm copy of all the early records. We realize that title-searchers are usually interested in tracing property ownership only 60 or 75 years, but they are not the only people who need to use those records. It should be added that, at last report, a microfilm copy of Prince George's land records 1696-ca.1719 was available at the Hyattsville Area Branch Library on Adelphi Road, along with copies of certain other early records. Those microfilms are now stored in the periodical room on the lower level, not in the Maryland Room.]

THE EDITOR SPEAKS --- A heart-felt "thank you" to all the individuals who contributed to this issue of the BULLETIN. In order to accomodate as much of the material as possible we added a few more pages to this issue. Readers are encouraged to keep up this trend by submitting ancestor charts, family Bible records, abstracts of Prince George's County sources, genealogies of Prince George's families, news of local activities and whatever else you think our members might be interested in seeing here. -- Don Wilson

EXTRACTS FROM GENEALOGICAL EXCHANGES....By Pricia Burk Paulkovich

SANTA MARIA VALLEY CA GEN.SOC. Apr. 1984, has a copy of genealogical worksheet with tips by "Ben" Benjamin on documenting your problems: setting down known facts, information desired, assumptions, research plan, and results desired.

THE SEARCHER, SoCalGenSoc, Vol. XXI, #5. State Archives of Mass. is to have custody of all vital records in the state for the years 1841-90. ORANGE CO. CAGenSoc Qtrly, June 1984. Robert E. Brasher, the author of "Using Queries: A Unique Method of Research," makes the suggestion that sending queries to newspapers or genealogical society publications may be the only way to locate unknown relatives and ancestors. He recommends that you take advantage of your society's exchange program and look for queries in their publications. He lists a number of publications to consult, such as Ayer's Directory of Publications (found in most libraries) for a list of current papers for an area where your ancestors were. To locate past issues of genealogical periodicals and newspapers, see Winifred Gregory's Union List of Newspapers, 1821-1936. Also recommended is Mary Kay Meyer's Directory of Genealogical Societies of the U.S. and Canada (1980), as well as various publications featuring queries. A survey was made in the past by our own PGCoGenSociety on the availability of U.S. newspapers on microfilm and if available on inter-library loan. The results of this survey are in our Society library.

JASPER CO. IA GLEANER, Oct. 1983, has a report on an impressive survey, with recommendations of all cemetery sites in Jasper Co. The Jasper Co. GenSoc will extract basic information from county birth, marriage and death records at no charge and will also copy obit and census information from the microfilm collection at the public library for 25¢ a page, $1.00 minimum, with SASE, 20¢ postage for each 4 pages. Jasper Co. GLEANER, P.O. Box 163, Newton, IA 50208.

SEATTLE GenSoc Bulletin, summer 1984. Quaker research at Friends Historical Society, Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, PA, 19081 is discussed. You are invited to research at the Library, 8:30-4:30 weekdays; 9-12 Saturdays when college is in session. Closed during August. Inquiries by mail have a strict limitation; one hour of preliminary research is $15 in advance, no refund. Be specific, providing (by printing or typing) full names of family members, dates, places of residence and name of Monthly Meeting, if known. There is no master list of Quaker names.

Genealogical Exchanges (con.)

CAR-DEL SCRIBE July 1984. Lou Pero discusses, first of all, whether or not you should buy a computer for your genealogy. His conclusions are no, if you are an "average" genealogist working on your family tree, and if it is to be used ONLY for genealogy, and if you are not really too interested in computers or wishing to learn. But, far from discouraging you, he does point out the value of computers for the genealogist, such as the use of the word processor, and for indexing.

SEATTLE GenSoc Bulletin, Summer 1984. The German Locality Index, 3813 E. 41st St., Minneapolis, MN, 55406, is seeking to pinpoint our German ancestors and preserve this data for historians and genealogists. An attempt is made to identify not only where a surname is found in the "Old Country" but also the names of other researchers who have access to data on surnames and/or the locality. Write for form, send SASE.

MIAMI VALLEY, OH, GenSoc, Summer 1984. Corrine Hanna Diller has an ongoing project to identify and give information on immigrant Quaker ancestors of the Miami Valley, OH, area. Five families are featured in this issue, with more to come.

WEST-CENTRAL KY FAMILY RESEARCH ASSN, Summer 1984. The Illinois State Archives has a card inter-file index for the 1860 Federal Census for 41 counties, with seven more at the Archives but not in the card inter-file. These files can be searched for one or two specific names of individuals in response to mail requests. For common names, the county should be designated. Give the full name of the head of the household. Write: Illinois State Archives, Springfield, IL 62706.

GENEALOGICAL HELPER, May-June 1984. Dr. Ellery H. Harvey, 685 Mt. Vernon Dr., Lexington, KY 40502 says that nothing equals a personal trip to a state depository of American Revolutionary War muster rolls, but for those who cannot, he will check published South Carolina records for ancestors at no charge if name is typed or printed and accompanied by a SASE.

BOOK REVIEWS

GENEALOGICAL PERIODICAL ANNUAL INDEX, Vol. 19, by Catherine M. Mayhew, Compiler and Laird C. Towle, Editor. Heritage Books, Inc., Bowie, MD. 1984. 178pp. A gift of Laird C. Towle, Ph. D. Available from Heritage Books, Inc., 3602 Maureen Lane, Bowie, MD 20715 for $15 + $1.50 & 5% MD Tax for MD residents.

We are happy to again see another of these volumes in print. A large percentage of genealogical periodicals are submitted to the editor so that they may be included in this index. This edition covers 158 genealogical periodicals with about 8300 index citations. Articles are scanned and data on surnames, localities and topical categories are included in CPAI. Much helpful information can be found in periodicals and it is impossible to keep up with, or subscribe to them all. With this guide the genealogist can find pertinent information that otherwise might have been missed.

HEADS OF FAMILIES - U.S. CENSUS SOUTH CAROLINA 1790, NORTH CAROLINA 1790, PENNSYLVANIA 1790. Donated by Robert L. Stewart.

The 1790 census was the first census of the United States and therefore provides a valuable tool for genealogists. The name of the head of the family is listed and numerical totals are given for free white males over 16 and under 16, free white females, other free persons and slaves. A complete set of the 1790 census is needed for every basic research library and we are glad to add these three volumes to our collection.

YOUR IRISH ANCESTORS by J. Anderson Black. Castle Books. 1984. 253pp. A gift of Paul Koberg.

It is estimated that there are more than 40 million people of Irish descent living in America. This volume is designed to help those Americans with Irish ancestry. The book is divided into three major sections. The first section is an illustrated history of Ireland from the Bronze Age to 1921. The second section is called "Great Irish Families" and is an alphabetical listing of Irish names with several paragraphs covering the origin and history of the name. Maps to the side show where large groups of these families were located. Some of the more illustrious persons of each surname are mentioned. The shortest, and final section of the book is called "Tracing Your Irish Ancestors" and it is a do-it-yourself guide to searching for one's family. A short bibliography is also included.

INDIANA SOURCES FOR GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH IN THE INDIANA STATE LIBRARY by Carolyn L. (Wendel) Miller. The Family History Section, Indiana Historical Society 1984. Contributed for Review. Copies may be ordered from the Indiana Historical Society, 315 W. Ohio, Indianapolis, IN 46202. $15 for members, $25 for non-members.

Knowing what records are available, and where to find them, is of primary importance to genealogists. This book fills that need for the state of Indiana. Although it is a guide to sources available at the Indiana State Library, it will also be of use to researchers working in other repositories and libraries. There are chapters on the Indiana State Library, Historical Society and Archives. Then there is background information on Indiana periodicals, land records, military and pension records, court and vital statistics records, census, mortality schedules, cemetery records, church records and general sources. This is followed by an alphabetical listing of counties and specific published or microfilm sources available. This is an indispensable tool for those working on Indiana problems.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
5 SEPTEMBER 1984

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 5 September 1984, at 7:35 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright, following the hospitality period. Hospitality was highlighted by a large cake commemorating the Society's 15th year, as well as the attendance of several charter members. Photographs were taken of these original members and of all past Presidents of the Society who were in attendance.

First Vice President Ruth Stultz introduced our guest speaker, Jane Egan. Ms. Egan is associated with numerous historical societies and groups involved with the activities celebrating Maryland's 350th anniversary. Her slide presentation and excellent commentary on "350 Years of Maryland History" was well received by the membership.

Phyllis Cox introduced the attending charter members. Of 36, 8 continue their membership in the Society. Eight were present at the meeting -- Barbara C. Dash; Shirley Langdon Wilcox, C.G.; and Emerald O. Miner, who still belong to the society; also Mary McDaniel Feher, Virginia Heyerdahl, Sue Ellen Webb, Alan Webb, and Margaret Wheelock. Phyllis gave a brief synopsis of the history of the Society, from the "Bowie Genealogical Forum" in 1969, through its incorporation in 1983.

Second Vice President Dorothy Haney reported that over two-thirds of our members, plus 9 new members, have already paid their dues for the current year. Six guests were introduced at the meeting. Past Treasurer Jim Reep gave the following report: Savings account, $2202.40, Money market fund, $3630.26, and Checking account, $2431.89. The books will be transferred to Eugene Ernest on 1 October 1984.

Dorothy Rainwater announced an autumn seminar planned for 13 November, with workshops following on 20 and 27 November. Other announced meetings included a Western Maryland seminar on 6 October, and Anne Arundel Genealogical Society 11 October meeting on "Research in North Carolina."

Bulletin Editor Don Wilson gave special thanks to Elise Jennings for her assistance in preparing the Bulletin. Bill Wiseman, Bible Records, announced he received three records at the meeting and asked for volunteers for his committee. A pair of brass paperweights was given to lottery winner, Dorothy Rainwater.

Shirley Wilcox gave a count of the publications on hand for sale -- 105 copies of Stones and Bones, 269 of 1850 Census, and 29 copies of the Bibliography. Jean Sargent informed the membership that early Prince George's County land records have been moved to the Maryland Hall of Records: the indexes are still at the courthouse.

The minutes of the June, 1984, meeting were approved as printed in the Bulletin. A motion to update the Library Accession List at a cost not to exceed $150 was approved by the membership. After a "Show and Tell" period, the meeting was adjourned by President Wright at 9:20 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann C. Beck, Secretary

"How-To" SERIES RETURNS BY POPULAR DEMAND

Once again our Society is offering its popular, free seminar series, showing you how to go about SEARCHING FOR YOUR ANCESTORS. In this four-part program, co-sponsored by the Prince George's County Memorial Library System, you can learn the BASIC research steps from members of our Society.

The first session, Tuesday, November 13, 7-9 p.m., will bring back Shirley Langdon Wilcox, C.G., to tell How to Get Started: an Introduction for Beginners, followed by Evaluating Sources and Keeping Records.

Session two, the following Tuesday, November 20, 7-9 p.m., features Freeman E. Morgan Jr., C.G., on Genealogical Sources at the National Archives, plus tips on Using Libraries and Archives.

The following Tuesday, November 27, 7-9 p.m., brings talks by Olive Jones on Courthouse Records: How to Find and Use Them, followed by Jean Sargeant on Genealogical Correspondence: How to Make It Work.

Finally, on Saturday, December 1, 9 a.m. to noon, experienced researchers from the Society will give you one-on-one help with your personal research problems.

These programs, all of which will be held at the Greenbelt Library, will be interpreted for the deaf and hearing-impaired.

REEP TO OFFER ADVICE ON FAMILY ORGANIZATIONS

Our upcoming meeting will feature a talk by Jim Reep, former treasurer of the Prince George's County Genealogical Society, on Family Organizations and Their Development of Records. This talk will tie together with a workshop to be held in the Spring, jointly sponsored by our Education and Training Committee and the Reep Family Association (of which he is an officer).

Jim is retired from twenty years' service with the U.S. Navy. He is now a Certified Genealogical Records Searcher, has published a history of the REEP family of Knox County, Ohio. Jim and his wife Louise, who live in Hyattsville, Md., graduated together from high school in Lewisburg, Pa. They have four children, and their first grandchild arrived Sept. 5, 1984.

Our meeting begins at 7 p.m., Wednesday, November 7, at the Greenbelt Library, 11 Crescent Road. After a half-hour get-acquainted session, the program will begin at 7:30, followed by our monthly business meeting. Library rules now require us to be out of the building around 9 p.m. Visitors are welcome. Our society meetings are free and open to the public.

THE REFRESHMENTS COMMITTEE has received some new faces: Margaret Loftus, Muriel Lewis, Betty Hamilton, and Irene D'Amato. But although Pat Paulkovich has stepped down from that position, she won't be found napping. She and Ruth Stultz, along with Elise Jennings, the coordinator, are to be thanked for getting our BULLETIN printed, labeled, and mailed. Merci to you all!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE Ed Wright

As your president I am also your representative to the Genealogical Council of Maryland. One of the Council's major efforts involves gathering information on the location of church records and cemeteries. To accomplish this our Society has two representatives, Jean Sargent, to collect information on Prince George's cemeteries; and Olive Jones, her counterpart in the collection of data on the county's church records.

The committee on church records plans to prepare and publish a guide to these records. We want to know where to locate the original records, and copies, for any given church founded before 1910. One of the first places Olive Jones has checked, of course, is the listing held by the Hall of Records (now called State Archives). However she will need help to determine the other locations. She solicits your support.

The goals of the cemetery committee are similar to those of the church committee. As with the cemetery records we want to know the specific location of each cemetery, in addition to a few other details. For specific details contact our representative, Jean Sargent. She would appreciate your help. Of course she has the earlier work done by her workers in preparing the publication of STONES AND BONES, but more information is required.

For details on how you can help -

Church Records: Olive Jones, 464-8753.

Cemetery Records: Jean Sargent, 776-6138.

PERILS OF "FORTY-NINER" BROUGHT TO LIFE

[The following letter was submitted by Bethine Coe Pyles of Washington, DC, as an illustration of the hardships experienced by Gold Rush pioneers to California in 1849; a follow-up to our program last month, presented by Ann Wellhouse. It appeared in the book DEAR PROGENY, written by Mrs. Pyles for her five children and privately printed. She is Mrs. John C. Pyles Jr., 2914 44th St., NW, 20016.]

My grandmother, Amanda Isabelle Hinton, also from Indiana, was a tiny baby at the time her father, James Hinton joined with other "49ers" who headed for the California gold mines. He chose the long Panama route which he described in a letter saved by his family. This was the last communication they had from him and it was presumed that he was a victim of swamp fever, but the letter hints ominously at other perils which may have befallen the ill-fated traveller:

"November 15th 1849

"Dear Family: - I take this opportunity of informing you that I am well at present and hoping that these few lines will find you in the same state of health. I wrote one letter to you from Orleans that I expect you have got some time back so I shall give no account of anything before that time. So then we got on the Steamship Alabama and sailed to Chagres making the trip in ten days, three days going up the Chagres River then two days crossing the Isthmus to Panama. And so we landed here at Panama on the First of November and we find ourselves here yet and cannot get away from this place until the 25th of the above month on account of there being so many in before us. We think there is twelve hundred Americans or near that here before us and that makes it difficult for us to get off. We have got a ticket at last. (Crease in paper) the 25th of -- (torn) from which we (torn out) hundred and seventy dollars each and that (torn out) -- stripped us of money in a manner, and it cost us about forty cents each day here and we do the best we can. We wash our own clothes and that is poorly done.

"Now I will give you some account of the natives here ... [also describes hot and humid weather, was the middle to the rainy season] The best water that we can get to drink is like rain water that has stood over night but we have got used to that and don't mind it very much. ...

"We have killed no game on the route yet, only one allegator and that Jim CHERRY killed on Chagres River. There is some here but the woods is so thick that you cannot get through them safe. . . . I send you this [account] of the route and of the expenses of the route. To Cincinnati 2 days 5.75 cents, and expenses in town to New Orleans 5.50 for passage and board yourself which cost us each 1.50 cents apiece. The bill at Orleans was one doll[ar] each, then our ticket on the steamship was 45 dollars stearage passage. Then from Chagres to Crucis in canoe was 7 dollars then from Crucis to Panama 8 dollars for hundred. From Panama to San Francisco 175. ... As to crossing the Gulf it made our boys vomit excessively. I was sick one day and that was all. ...

"This is the worst place that I ever was in for gambling and ruffians of all sorts. ... In our company there has been one of the Americans put in jail this morning for firing a pistol at a Spaniard. He is to have his trial in the morning. ... I dont expect that you will hear from me before April next as there will be little chance of me to write... They say that there is no danger but that we will do well in three or four months if we had not had such bad luck here in getting a vessle to carry us up to the mines we might have been there at this time. ... The vessle that we are to go on is to start the 20" of the month and some think that she will go sooner. I obtained some assistance from Dr. Hathaway in order to help me along so that I can get through. ... Your affectionate husband until Death shall separate us.

By James Hinton."

STONES AND BONES

CEMETERY RECORDS OF PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY MARYLAND

Mr. Fred S. DeMarr, Past-President, P. G. County Historical Society, has forwarded some interesting information to us about the following graves listed in the Family Graveyards section of "Stones and Bones."

Page 555 - BAMBER GRAVE. This grave of a young English girl who died while in this country with an itinerant acting troupe, has been moved to Rock Creek Cemetery. The stone was found by the DAR in 1955 near the old Adelphi Mill, and it was later left on a mound of earth about 20'-30' high during some construction in the area, until someone took the responsibility of moving it to a place of perpetual care.

Page 562 - CARTER, ROSALIE EUGENIA. This stone was originally located at "Goodwood" on Clagett Landing Road, but about 10-15 years ago the subject's great-grandson Eugene Bowie Roberts of "Fairwood" had the grave and stone removed to the churchyard of St. Barnabas, Leeland, and it appears with the records of that cemetery on page 51 of our book. She was the daughter of George and Rosalie Eugenia Steir Calvert of "Riversdale." Her daughter, Alice, was the wife of Gov. Oden Bowie of "Fairview."

Page 583 - MAGRUDER FAMILY CEMETERY. These graves formerly located between warehouses and the old P. G. Country Club, were moved to Ft. Lincoln Cemetery sometime in the early 1960's.

Page 593 - RIVES FAMILY GRAVEYARD. After the Rives House (Jimmy LaFontaine's gambling parlor) was destroyed, the site was graded for construction of the warehouses now located there. The stones were scattered on the ground for a while. Mr. DeMarr will try to find out where they were finally located.

+ + + +

Mr. John Lee Ball, Jr., of Riverdale, whose father did a great deal of research in this area, told us of several interesting unmarked grave sites:

There was a Harvey cemetery at the site of Duval High School in Glenn Dale at the corner of Good Luck Rd. and Greenbelt Rd. Mr. Harvey, who sold the property, expected the County to remove the graves. The Metro Center at New Carrollton sits on top of an old marble grave marker site. There was also an old graveyard on the NW corner of Presley Lane and Good Luck Road in Lanham.

There was an old Indian burial ground about 1,500 feet in the rear of the new Seventh Day Adventist Church in Lanham on Good Luck Road. There was also an Indian burial ground on the NE side of the Ardmore/Ardwick Railroad Crossing, near the Ardwick Industrial Center.

Indexes to PGCGS Bulletins. A set of Bulletin indexes, Vols. 1-14, 1970-1983, are filed in a single binder and available in the PGCGS library. Recently, a couple of members researching Maryland ancestors came upon some good records through use of this combined index. This is a reminder to our members on how useful the society library can be. Make good use of it.

Library Periodical Room Book Shelves. Two book cases have recently been added to the societies library periodical room to accommodate over flow of exchanges and donated periodicals. These cases will add six shelves four feet wide but may be filled by the end of the year. We may need to call on our members to help supply additional shelves at that time.

275th ANNIVERSARY OF THE HYATTSVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, NOVEMBER 6, 1979; also BRIEF HISTORY OF HYATTSVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH 1704-1977. Gifts of Myrna Smith.

In 1704 Colonel Ninian Beall donated a half acre of land for the erecting of a church at Upper Marlboro. In 1718 a meeting house was erected on Charles Beall's land near the forks of the Eastern Branch of the Potomac River. Marlboro began to decline as a seaport and in 1725 Archibald Edmonston donated an acre of land on the Eastern Branch of the River and when the town of Bladensburg was laid out in 1742 the church became the Bladensburg Presbyterian Church. Then in 1818 the church was rebuilt in the center of Bladensburg. After the Civil War membership declined and the property was sold in 1873. Proceeds of the sale were used to build a new church in Hyattsville and the name was changed to Hyattsville Presbyterian Church. A new church was built and in use until 1915 when the property was sold and a new building erected. This property was sold in 1959 and the church moved to its present building at 3120 Nicholson St., Hyattsville. These two small pamphlets will be added to our growing collection of material concerning Prince George's County.

MARYLAND EASTERN SHORE NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS. 4 volumes: Volume 1, 1790-1805, Volume 2, 1806-1812, Volume 3, 1813-1818, Volume 4, 1819-1824, by F. Edward Wright. 1981-1982. Purchased by the Society.

These four volumes were compiled by our current president, Cdr. Ed Wright and consist of items abstracted from the earliest newspapers of the Eastern Shore. Included are vital records, legal cases, property sales and rentals, letters in post offices, advertisements for lost relatives from Europe, runaway wives, fugitive slaves and apprentices and merchants and craftsmen seeking customers. In short, anything deemed of genealogical value has been included. A wealth of information can be found in newspapers but they are seldom used because they are so time consuming to search when no index is available. These records help add meat to the bare bones of a lineage and often provide dates and happenings that could not be found in official records. For areas where the courthouse has burned this can be very critical. Each entry shows the name and date of the paper and is followed by the items and persons names. A complete index at the back of each volume makes searching very easy.

INDEX TO PROBATE RECORDS OF COLONIAL GEORGIA 1733-1778 by R. J. Taylor, Jr. Foundation. Atlanta, GA. 1983. 106pp. Purchased by the Society.

During Georgia's colonial period, probate records were maintained by the Register of Records and Secretary of the Colony, beginning in the 1750's. Included in the early volumes are some records dating to the founding of the colony in 1733. These early probate records are scattered among several repositories. The Taylor Foundation staff has searched through these documents and made an index of the holdings. The bulk of the material is available at the Georgia Department of Archives and History. The book is divided into two parts with the first part listing the name of the decedant or minor and the date. The second part is the index which lists persons who appear in the record and their function such as administrator, Guardian or heir. A special index to slaves and blacks is also included. This book will be most helpful to those searching this time period.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
3 OCTOBER 1984

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 3 October 1984, at 7:30 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright. The meeting was preceded by a thirty-minute hospitality period.

First Vice President Ruth I. Stultz introduced the featured speaker for the meeting, Ann Wellhouse. Ms. Wellhouse's topic was "Searching for Gold Rush Ancestors", and contained many tips on locating "missing" ancestors who may have joined the rush for gold in the late 1840's or early 1850's.

The program was followed by the Society business meeting. The minutes of the September, 1984 meeting were approved as printed in the Bulletin. There was no old business before the Society.

Bulletin Editor Don Wilson apologized for the lateness of the last issue, and urged everyone contributing material to adhere to the deadlines established so that the problem doesn't recur.

Shirley Wilcox, Special Publications, reported that the Index to the 1828 Tax List has been typed. She is working on the introduction and a map to accompany it. Assistance is needed to finish the project - design work, typing labels, affixing the labels, etc.

Ruth Stultz announced that the speaker for November will be James Reep, who will talk about family associations and record keeping. A social is planned in lieu of a speaker for the December meeting.

Second Vice President Dorothy D. Haney has received membership renewals from 327 of the Society's 413 members, plus two new members who joined at the meeting. Three visitors were also present.

Treasurer Eugene Ernest gave the financial report: Savings account $2202.40, Money market fund $3676.54, and Checking account $2186.72, for a total of $8065.66.

Ann Herrick gave the Education report, and reminded members of the seminar on Western Maryland, 6 October, at the Gaithersburg Marriott. Also, the Maryland Genealogical Society is sponsoring an all-day seminar on 27 October at the Towson Library, Towson, Maryland. Entitled "What Are You Planning to Do With All of Your Notes?", it will cover preparing lineage papers, publishing a family genealogy, planning a family reunion, planning a magazine article, and more.

Olive Jones is representing our Society for the project on church records which is being compiled by the Genealogical Council of Maryland. The council hopes to compile a list of the churches in Maryland, their names, denominations, what records they have, where the records are, what they cover, and for what years. They are specifically interested in records prior to 1910. Olive would like to form a committee to contact churches in our county and attempt to locate their records.

The Bible records lottery was won by Joseph W. Dorothy.

The meeting was adjourned by President Wright at 8:55 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann C. Beck, Secretary

SHARE THE SEASON WITH US

As has become a tradition with the Prince George's County Genealogical Society, the December meeting will be a time of socializing, sharing refreshments, and exchanging ideas. The meeting begins at 7 p.m., Wednesday, December 5, in the meeting room of the Greenbelt Library. Members are encouraged to bring "goodies" to share during our mingling. Do you have a Christmas speciality? Then why not give others a chance to taste it.

There will be opportunities for "show and tell". You are invited to let the rest of us in on your recent discoveries. Ed Wright will favor us with a demonstration of his new personal computer (see next page). Visitors are, as always, welcome.

And here is a last reminder to take advantage of our free genealogical seminar, currently underway at the Greenbelt Library. The final program, a problem-solving workshop, will be held Saturday, December 1, 9 a.m. to noon. Personal help is available from experienced members of the Society. See you then!

JANE ROUSH McCAFFERTY, C.G., FORMER BULLETIN EDITOR DIES

Jane passed quickly and quietly in her beloved home on 28 October 1984, nine months after her diagnosis of a brain tumor. Jane asked that she be remembered by gifts to the Seimes Microfilm Center, NSDAR, 1776 D Street, NW, Washington, DC 20006, or to the American Cancer Society, 5124 Baltimore Avenue, Hyattsville, MD 20781.

A memorial service was held at the Southminister Presbyterian Church in Oxon Hill, Maryland, on 3 November 1984. If you would like a copy of the program send SASE to Jim McCafferty, 613 Rosier Road, Fort Washington, MD 20744. It was prepared from a genealogist's perspective.

Jane will be inurned at the Columbarium in Arlington National Cemetery at 2 p.m. 23 November 1984. The service is being handled by the Harmony Hall Chapter, D.A.R. Jane, who was past regent of the James Monroe Chapter in the District of Columbia and the Marlborough Towne Chapter in Prince George's County, was the organizing force behind the Harmony Hall Chapter. Jane was able to be present at the organizing meeting of the chapter in April 1984. Jane also was an associate member of the Anne Simpson Chapter DAR in Columbus, Ohio.

Jim and his family appreciate the cards and calls of condolence from Society members and friends. Jane enjoyed serving the Society as Editor of this Bulletin (Sept. 1982-Feb. 1984). She was particularly pleased to see her copy appear in other genealogical bulletins, including the Tri-State Trader genealogical section. Jim, because of his full-time work, will be unable to retain Jane's clients but will carry on research on Jane's and his own family lines.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE Ed Wright

After much deliberation I finally bought my first computer, an Apple IIc. For some time I had been hoping to acquire a portable computer for the recording of data at libraries and archives. I'm very pleased at the prospect of reducing total time in preparing material for source books and their indexing to about one-half of the normal time.

I had planned to await the production of the lightweight LCD monitor but continued delays and a recent reduction in price of the Apple IIc with the standard monitor caused me to decide to wait no longer.

As far as genealogical uses for computers are concerned, I've restricted my present considerations to word processing and data base (for indexing). As is the case of many genealogists, I have yet to see a convincing demonstration of a software package designed for specific genealogical use. -- At least not to the extent that I would convert my current written files.

It's evident that there are many genealogists who have an interest in genealogical applications for micro-computers. Ruth Stultz, our first vice-president and program chairman, has expressed the need to exchange information on software and to demonstrate their uses. She would appreciate suggestions along this line.

I will bring my new Apple IIc to the December meeting as my contribution to our evening of Show and Tell. I'll plan to demonstrate it at 7:00.

ADDISON CHAPEL IN DIRE STRAITS

Our member Margaret Miller passes on this appeal from the Addison Chapel Foundation, seeking donations to help preserve Addison Chapel (St. Matthew's Episcopal Church) on Addison Road in Seat Pleasant, Md. (The chapel's history is recounted in STONES AND BONES, p. 84-107.) "October 3, 1984"

"Since my last letter to you, we have had some very bad luck. The Chapel was broken into. Much of our brass was stolen, including the crucifix cross. And if that wasn't enough, the thieves, or some other thief broke into the implement shed and stole our lawn mowers and tools. We will not receive enough funds from the insurance to replace the cemetery equipment due to depreciation. ... So much to be done, so very few funds to do it. Your help is needed."

"The Maryland Historical Trust received funds from the Vestry of Addison Chapel in 1969 to set up a Perpetual Trust to help maintain the chapel and cemetery. ... To carry out the Covenant and Trust, the Addison Chapel Foundation, Inc. was formed as their Agent."

"Please make all contributions payable to the Addison Chapel Foundation, Inc., and mail to John Boertlein, Jr., 5813 Della Lane, Camp Springs, MD 20746."

Services every Sunday are held at 9:00 a.m. Directions: East Capitol Street to 214 (Central Avenue). Left on Addison Road to Chapel. Margaret Miller says they would be glad to have visitors any Sunday.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
7 NOVEMBER, 1984

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 7 November, 1984, at 7:30 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright. The meeting followed a half-hour hospitality period.

President Wright announced that our former Bulletin editor, Jane Roush McCafferty, C.G., passed away 28 October, 1984. Memorial donations to either the Cancer Society or the NSDAR microfilm project were accepted at the meeting.

First Vice President Ruth I. Stultz introduced the speaker for the evening, James W. Reep. Mr. Reep talked about "Family Organizations and Their Development of Records." He is a member of our Society, has served as its Treasurer, and has been featured as a speaker at prior meetings.

Jim discussed the types of family associations - social ones, those interested in preservation, and genealogical ones. He stressed the value of family organizations, namely helping each other and pooling resources. Jim encouraged everyone to look for family information, but urged caution in using it.

The Society business meeting followed the program. The minutes of the October, 1984 meeting were approved as printed in the Bulletin. There was no old business before the Society.

President Wright commented on the discussion during a recent Society Council meeting regarding the dilemma posed by our limited time frame for meetings. We are trying to fit hospitality, a speaker, and the Society business meeting into a 7:00 - 9:00 period. Open discussion seemed to favor retaining the hospitality period, and several alternative suggestions were offered by members. Donald Wilson motioned that we change the meeting format and time, to begin at 7:00 p.m. with the Society business meeting, followed by the guest speaker, and hospitality at 8:30 p.m. The motion was seconded and passed by voice vote.

The President explained the Archives Gift Fund to the membership, and said that the Society has participated for two years. The gift fund suggests a $1.00 donation from each genealogist. Cdr. Wright encouraged the members to participate; the Treasurer, Mr. Ernest, will accept donations.

Bulletin editor Donald Wilson announced the revised deadline for Bulletin material. It should be submitted by the Society meeting, or the 10th of each month.

Education Chairperson Dorothy Rainwater announced that flyers were available for the Society's seminar series, which begins 13 November.

Past President James McCafferty is responsible for mailing Society publications. He asked that padded envelopes (jiffy bags) be recycled for use in these mailings.

The Bible Records lottery was won by Betty Rice Piles. Her prize was a crystal buffet platter.

Bill Miller, a former president of the Society, spoke regarding the Federation of Genealogical Societies, and how membership in the Federation benefits us. Bill also represents our Society in the Federation. The FGS was instrumental in helping separate the National Archives from GSA. More funding has been indicated, which could mean additional personnel and hours in regional centers. The gift fund will microfilm files on Navy widows, catalogue Russian immigrants, etc.

Bill said that a Vital Records Committee has been formed, to survey all states regarding the openness of their vital records. The Federation will then make recommendations to individual state societies. Additionally, he announced that the next national conference will be held in Kansas City in August of 1985.

Ruth Stultz reminded the membership that there will be no speaker for the December meeting - it will be social, all "show and tell." In January, Joyce Cannon will speak on "Research through the LDS Library."

69 members attended the meeting, which adjourned at 9:03 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann C. Beck, Secretary

Joyce Candland of the Silver Spring Genealogical Library will speak to our Society on Wednesday, January 2, on the subject of RESEARCH IN LDS GENEALOGICAL LIBRARIES. She will describe the resources of the Silver Spring Library and tell what can be expected when the new library opens near the Mormon Temple in Silver Spring.

Beginning with our January meeting, our business session will begin promptly at 7 p.m. We hope to have it over in short order, to allow plenty of time for our speaker's talk and questions from the audience. Afterwards, about 8:30 p.m., refreshments will be served and time will be available for mixing with other members and for examining displays and exhibits.

Although we have scheduled some previous January meetings on the second Wednesday of the month, the date above is no misprint. This is the date the meeting room at the Greenbelt Library was made available to us. The library is located at 11 Crescent Road, Greenbelt, MD. Visitors are always welcome. We hope the weather is fine for this meeting so we can have a large turn-out.

A native Washingtonian, Joyce was educated in the Washington, D.C. area. Her interest in genealogy began some 25 years ago. She has attended numerous genealogical classes and training sessions including those given by the National Archives, Library of Congress and regional seminars, as well as those sponsored by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, a leading organization in the field of genealogy. As a member of the Church, Joyce has served as a basic and intermediate course instructor, records examiner, and currently is the Director of the LDS Silver Spring Branch Genealogical Library.

Teaching includes Beginning and Intermediate Genealogy and use of the LDS Branch Library for the Montgomery County Genealogy Club. Joyce has been guest speaker at the National Archives, various historical and genealogical societies, DAR meetings, senior citizen groups, Rotary clubs, and various Church functions. Her genealogy expertise represents a blending of training, teaching, professional research and extensive work on her own family lines.

Joyce is the wife of John M. Candland and is the mother of ten children.

MORE SURPRISES IN '85 --

One of the aspects of genealogy that generally attracts us is the solving of an intricate puzzle--solving, not the solution, is the game. In other words, it is an ongoing enterprise where unknowns dissolve into routes to other unknowns.

The route to the unknowns is oftentimes strewn with traps and distractions. With the help of others on similar adventures, we can find the trip smoother and more fun.

Take for example these little traps: In the Colonial period John Brown, Jr. may not mean his father's name is John. It may mean that John, Jr. is the younger of two John Browns in the area. John Brown, Sr. may be an uncle or a close friend of the family; an infant is a minor, not necessarily a baby. In Maryland it usually meant less than the age of 21; a son-in-law may be a step-son, etc.

Here's to a New Year in which we help others past the many pitfalls and obstacles on our way to high adventure.

THE MYSTERIES OF THE THREE WILLIAM H. PILES/PYLES/PILE

In the late 1700's and early 1800's there were three men in or near P. G. Co. who were known under some form of William H. Piles/Pile, and are easily confused. We are looking for help in trying to solve the two unsolved cases.

(1) William Hammersley Pile was the son of Eleanor Pile and Francis Hammersley. Eleanor was a sister of the Rev. Henry Pile who was sent to Europe for education as a Catholic priest in 1754 and returned in 1784. Eleanor and Henry were descended from Joseph³, Joseph² and Joseph¹ Pile of St. Mary's and Charles Counties, as indicated in wills of 16 Jan 1691 and 15 June 1724, will of Elizabeth Pile widow of Joseph³ 18 Dec 1781, admin. of Joseph³ granted to Francis Hammersley 1787, and a long chancery case of 1792/3 (Liber B26) in which Henry claimed his due share of the estate of Joseph³.

A vital key to this line is the passage of plantations "Sarum" and "Clear Doubt" down the line to eventually reach the Rev. Henry Pile. Having no sons, he stated in his will of 20 Dec 1812 that his nephew William must petition legislation to change his surname and that of his son Francis from Hammersley to Pile in order to inherit the major portion of the estate. The surnames of William and son Francis were changed to "Pile" 28 May 1813. Note that this family did not use an "s" at the end of the name and was essentially Catholic.

(2) William H. Piles (4 Jul 1783-30 Jul 1850), whose middle name is still unknown, appears by the evidence to have been the grandson of Francis⁴ Piles and Dorothy (Lanham) through their son Henry Humphrey Piles bpt. Oct. 3, 1763, who married Elizabeth Wallingford 1779. Francis⁴ Piles died in 1761 age 29, and on 1776 census Dorothy has several daughters and a male age 15.

To backtrack some² years, John³ Piles from Francis² and Francis¹ Piles as shown by will of Francis² (23 May 1726) and land conveyance of "Cuckold's Point" to Francis² by Ninian Beall in 1671, was born ca 1690 and married Mary Hunter ca 1720. Mary was dau of William and Rebecca Hunter, and in will of 1728 William gave much of his property "Hunter's Field" and "Hunter's Folly" to dau Mary and her children. John and Mary had children Hunter, Mary, William, John, Thomas Richard³, Francis, and Sarah.

John³ Piles in will of 19 Apr 1735 (21:363) distributed parts of "Hunter's Folly" and "Hunter's Field" among his children, and his wife was to have dower rights to³ plantation "Lamesly⁴". On 18 Jul 1759 a 99-year lease was signed in which John³ Piles' son William⁴ granted to his brother Francis⁴ 75 acres of "Hunter's Folly" for farming purposes (Land Rec. P.P:331) William died 1761 and Francis died 1764. In Piscataway and Hynson Hundreds records Dorothy Piles was credited with part of "Hunter's Folly" until 1818.

Francis⁴ Piles married Dorothy Lanham, dau of John Lanham and Mary Dickinson, and they had Lucy, Mary Dickinson, Sarah, Frances (or Francis), Henry Humphrey, and Elizabeth. Dorothy remained a widow from 1761 to 1818, when we find that Francis's estate was advertised for sale by the Administrator, George Semmes. In Liber TT-1 he stated that there were no debts due from the estate and that it consisted entirely of a freehold estate which had been held for many years by the "reversionists" to the exclusion of the representative of the deceased, and requested the sale for the purpose of distribution among the deceased's representatives.

On the 1818-1821 tax lists Thomas Walker is shown as holding 75 acres of "Hunter's Folly." Thomas (b. 1773) was grandson of William⁴ through his dau Eleanor⁵ who had married Henry Walker. Thomas may have been the referred to "reversionist."

On June 13, 1820 (Liber TT-22 and 24) the unexpired term of 39 years on the "Hunter's Folly" lease was sold to Francis Tolson for $619.03. After expenses of $58.14 the balance was $560.89. Our question is who got the money?? If we can prove that, it was William H. Piles, then it is further proof of his descent from Francis.

William H. Piles married Ann R. Jones 6 Feb 1806 and had 7 children. She died in 1822 and he married second Masa Allen 6 Mar 1823 and had 7 more ch. On 15 Dec 1857, Massa Piles, widow of William H., sold her dower portion of "Lanham's Delight" - 80 acres - for $100 to her son Thomas Edmund, who had m. Eleanor Allen 1842 and Elizabeth Walker 1850. On 31 Dec 1857 Thomas and wife Elizabeth A. sold that parcel plus a part of "Lanham's Delight" which William had deeded to Thomas Dec 4, 1846 plus a parcel called "Manchester" to David Rawlings. The land was described as south and east of the public road from Upper Marlboro to Alexandria running in a parallel direction with the lot belonging to Beall's Meeting House.

William H. Piles and descendants were apparently Methodists, and many with the changed spelling of "Pyles" are buried at Bell's Methodist Church at Camp Springs. He kept a hand written book listing marriages between 1821 and 1850 plus some births and deaths of his family members. (See our Bulletin Vol 14, No. 2 Oct 1982 and No. 3, Nov 1982 for listings.)

(3) (William?) Henderson Piles was listed as "William Piles" only when applying for marriage license in D. C. 16 Mar 1821. However, he is shown as Henderson Piles marrying Permelia Thorn in the first entry in William H. Piles' book. Was "William" just an error on the part of the clerk? This family was Episcopal, and vital records are found among those of St. John's Broad Creek in Piscataway. There is no birth record for Henderson, however, who was born ca 1790 according to 1850 census and 1786 according to his death record, having died 22 Apr 1870 age 84. His funeral and that of his wife and children (George Francis 1822-1859, John Henry 1824-1866, and James ca 1829-1852) were all at St. John's Church. Permelia Thorn known as Milly Ann, was dau of Henry Burch Thorn and Mary Thorn, and was born 20 Dec 1793 as recorded at St. John's.

There is no known connection between William H. Piles and Henderson Piles but in view of the entry in William's book, we suspect that they were related somehow. St. John's Church and Bell's Methodist are really only 4-5 miles apart on a main road of those days. There is even a possibility that they were brothers. Dorothy Pile shows two males under 16 on the 1790 census and four males 10-16 on the 1800 census and two males between 16 and 26 in 1810. We assume that they were grandchildren. Could two of them have been William H. and Henderson. Does anyone have any further clues?

Henderson Piles may have been named in honor of a Richard Henderson, 3rd son of Rev. Richard Henderson of Lanarkshire, Scotland, who married Sarah Brice at St. John's 19 Nov 1761, apparently owned a tavern in 1781 in Bladensburg according to Geo. Washington's diary, and was wealthy enough to own 25 slaves in 1790.

No probate records have been found for Henderson and Milly Ann Piles, but their funerals were recorded at St. John's Church in 1870 and 1857 respectively.

William H. Piles was an ancestor of Daniel G. Rice, 14220 Arctic Ave., Rockville, MD 20853 (Member #260), and Henderson Piles was an ancestor of Phyllis Luskey Cox, 7319 Circle Drive East, Oxon Hill, MD 20745 (Member #106). They would both like to hear from anyone who has any solutions to their problems on the Piles ancestry.

Bookends. The library needs bookends for the Periodical shelves. Standard type, metal bookends around 8 to 9 inches high would be very helpful. Please contact Ivan Rainwater if you have one or more bookends which you could donate to the library.

Periodical Room. Through the efforts of Assistant Librarians Pat Curran and Ann Herrick, the shelved periodicals have been reshelved and labeled by a system that allows quick location and easy access to specific states and volumes. Pat found a source of supply, without cost, for the map-board used to make dividers. The information listing state and name of periodical has been hand printed onto the mapboard dividers. We thank them very much for their initiative and time spent on this project to improve the use of the library and ease our shelf space needs.

BOOK REVIEWS

By Shirley Langdon Wilcox C.G.

A BEDWELL FAMILY by Larry King. 1982. 377pp. A Gift of the author. Copies may be ordered from the author, 100 Longview Drive, Hendersonville, TN 37075 for $25.

Robert Bedwell, the immigrant ancestor, received a land grant in Old Rapahannock Co., VA in 1661. It is believed, but not proven, that he was a son of Thomas Bedwell and was baptised 24 January 1635 at St. Giles Parish, Cripplegate, London, England. In 1680 Robert sold his land in Virginia and it is believed that about this time he moved to Kent Co., Delaware. Descendants through fourteen generations are shown including lines through females. Pictures enhance the text and an every name index makes the book easy to use.

KEITH KINFOLKS, Descendants of James Keith, Sr. From 1720 To 1797 by Larry King. 1979. 363pp. A Gift of the author. Copies may be ordered from Larry King, 100 Longview Drive, Hendersonville, TN 37075 for $25.00.

The parentage and year of immigration of James Keith are unknown. The author shows him to be the father of eight children, the first one born 1758, Bedford Co., VA. Later generations are shown to have moved to North Carolina and Kentucky. Lines through both male and female descendants are traced and pictures are used throughout the text. The book is completely indexed.

PENNSYLVANIA IN 1780, Compiled by John "D" and E. Diane Stemmons. 1978. 217pp. A gift of Emerald Miner.

The basis for this work is the colonial tax lists for the various counties taken around 1780. Most of these lists have been published in the Pennsylvania Archives. Lists for Northampton and Westmoreland Counties, while not in the published volumes are available elsewhere so they too have been included. Taxpayers throughout the state are listed in alphabetical order with the county and township shown. Since the names in the Pennsylvania Archives are not indexed this makes a quick reference tool. Using the data in this volume it would be a simple matter to refer to the published work to find out what data was shown on the actual tax list. This is a great research tool and we are pleased to have its addition to our library.

AN INDEX OF THE SOURCE RECORDS OF MARYLAND, Genealogical, Biographical, Historical by Eleanor Phillips Passano. Baltimore. Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1984. [Originally published 1940]. 478pp. A gift of Robert Stewart. $25.

Although this book was originally published over forty years ago it is still considered one of the primary reference books for those researching Maryland families. It is important that the reader read the introduction to understand the scope of the work and to gain some insight as to changes in records and depositories that might have taken place since Mrs. Passano made her compilation. There are two sections to the book, an index of surnames and the sources in which they can be located and a bibliography. The bibliography is divided into many different categories, too numerous to mention here. We are very happy to find that this book is once more in print and know that it will get much use by our members.

EARLY KENTUCKY TAX RECORDS, FROM THE REGISTER OF THE KENTUCKY HISTORICAL SOCIETY, With an Index by Carol Lee Ford. Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. Baltimore. 1984. 318pp. Purchased by the Society. $20.

This is one of a series of records published in genealogical periodicals that have been brought together and reprinted in a consolidated volume. The lists are reproduced without any changes but an index has been added. The 1790 and 1800 census records of Kentucky were destroyed when the British burned the Capitol during the War of 1812. Tax records can help provide a reconstructed census. The following tax lists have been included in this volume: Campbell 1795, Christian 1799, 1800, Fayette 1788, Floyd 1790, Franklin 1795, Hart 1819, Henderson 1799, Jefferson 1789, Knox 1800, Lincoln 1789, Logan 1795, Madison 1788, 1792, Mercer 1789, Montgomery 1797, Nelson 1792, Shelby 1795, Washington 1792 and Wayne 1801. Society members should find this book very useful.

AN INDEX TO SOME OF THE BIBLES AND FAMILY RECORDS OF THE UNITED STATES, VOLUME II (Excluding the Southern States-See Volume I) by E. Kay Kirkham. 1984. 104pp. Purchased by the Society. Everton Publishers, Logan, Utah. $15.50.

As with volume I, this is an index to surnames found in the Bible record collections of the NSDAR Library. These records have been microfilmed by the Genealogical Society of Utah, Salt Lake City and are available through their branch libraries. The index is arranged by states and New England, North Central, Mid-Central and South Central States. It is then in alphabetical order by surname. In a few instances first names are also given. This is followed by the LDS Microfilm number. Variations in surname spellings should be checked as all references are given as found in the original records.

BONDED PASSENGERS TO AMERICA by Peter Wilson Coldham. 9 Volumes bound in 3. Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1983. Purchased by the Society. $75.

The author estimates that by the time America had declared her independence in 1776 the prisons of England had sent over 40,000 inmates to our shores. Some eventually received freedom and respectability but many remained "tied to a form of serfdom which made them little different from bonded slaves." The first volume contains a fascinating history of this form of transportation. The remainder of the volumes contain lists of persons transported. The lists are arranged alphabetically but there is no index which is regrettable. Entries give a date, usually for sentencing or transportation, sometimes a destination, often the name of the ship and sometimes the number of years servitude or the offense.

GUIDE TO THE STUDY AND READING OF SOUTH CAROLINA HISTORY, A General Classified Bibliography by J. H. Easterby. Columbia, The Historical Commission of South Carolina 1950. 289pp. A gift of Shirley Brasher McCoy.

This is the second volume in a series of publications known as South Carolina Bibliographies. It was designed as an attempt to list and classify all the printed materials, both primary and secondary, that would be useful in the study of state history. It contains information on libraries and other depositories, bibliographical aids, periodicals and serial publications, public records, private sources and secondary works. There are two indexes, one to authors and another to subjects.

EXTRACTS FROM GENEALOGICAL EXCHANGES... By Pricia Burk Paulkovich

FEDERATION OF GENEALOGICAL SOCIETIES Newsltr, May/June 1984, lists guides and prices for counties in New York that have completed guides, and some that are in production. Write to New York Historical Resources Center, 506 Olin Library, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY 14853. In this same issue is an abbreviated version of model legislation on the preservation of graveyards, prepared by the Association for Gravestone Studies (c/o American Antiquarium Society, Worcester, MA 01609.)

Arizona State Genealogical Society's COPPER STATE BULLETIN, winter 1983, has several valuable "nuggets" for you. Pat Stockton has compiled an account of the Mormom Battalion. Among other references, she has used the diaries of three members of that famous march.

"Interlibrary Loan Code" by Tonie Kraincock gives explicit instructions that are worth making a copy for your files. And have you wondered who are considered the top villains in history (other than those you found in your own family tree?) History and political science professors at Catholic U., Wash., DC were informally polled and they came up with a list of ten villains, based on the impact they had on history, with their deliberate aggression and brutal use of power. The list includes two of the Caesars--Caligula and Nero; other villains dead but not forgotten, and one living one. They even had a "dishonorable mention" list, with an American making it. The article concluded with: "Ah! infamy, what price your ancestors will have to pay!"

THE SCHUYLERITE, Schuyler Co., Rushville, IL, Summer 1984, reports that the Missouri Supreme Court has decided that Missouri counties may relegate various types of records to trash if the records are 50 years old; no provision has been made for preserving them on microfilm or microfiche. It was suggested that you contact your local genealogical, historical and lineage societies; that it may take a joint effort by several organizations to SAVE THE COURTHOUSE RECORDS.

From this same issue is an article of local news from the Rushville Times, Oct. 12, 1905: "Slates are fast disappearing from schools all over the country. In many states the health boards have made rules forbidding the use of slates in school, declaring them unsanitary. No more spitting on slates and then wiping them off with their sleeve for boys of this generation. No more sponges to throw at each other. All the pleasures of our boyhood seem denied the child of today, who must content himself with paper. Paper tablets are replacing the slates and last year in the states about $10 million worth of paper tablets at retail prices were sold."

DEKALB Co. IL GenSoc, Fall 1984 printed a formula to find any day of the week at any date after 14 September 1752.

THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
5 DECEMBER, 1984

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 5 December, 1984, at 7:20 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright.

There were two corrections to the minutes of the November meeting. The speaker for the January meeting is Joyce Candland, instead of Cannon. The winner of the November Bible records lottery was Betty Rice, not Betty Rice Piles. The minutes were approved as amended.

There was no old business or new business before the Society.

Ruth Stultz announced that she had attended a meeting of the "Friends of Greenbelt Library", and that the hours set for meetings to end are a county matter, not controlled by library employees.

Phyllis Cox has been doing Prince George's County land research for the Foster family. She announced that a copy of this genealogy in notebook form has been presented to the Society library by Mr. Wayne Dawson of California.

Joseph Dorothy informed the members that a number of 1980 and 1981 Genealogical Helpers have been donated to the Prince George's County Library, and are available through the bookstore at the Adelphi Road branch.

Education Chairperson Dorothy Rainwater reported that the recent autumn seminar series for beginning genealogists was a great success, with attendance averaging 47 persons per session. Dorothy expressed her appreciation to a number of people who assisted with the programs - Margaret Thrasher of the Prince George's Memorial Library system, Elizabeth Allen of the Greenbelt Branch Library, and a number of Society members, Shirley Wilcox, Freeman Morgan, Jr., Olive Jones, Jean Sargent, Phyllis Cox, Dorothy Haney, Kay Mayhew, Jim McCafferty, Ivan Rainwater, Jim Reep, and Ed Wright.

Elise Jennings reiterated the necessity of submitting material for the Bulletin promptly to Donald Wilson.

Treasurer Eugene Ernest reported a total of $9080. in the various Society accounts.

Ivan Rainwater, our Archivist, said that the library is in need of 8" to 10" bookends for use in filing the periodicals.

Karen Miles handled the Bible records lottery for Bill Wiseman. The winner again this month was Betty Rice.

There was some discussion of changes at the Library of Congress. The card system is being replaced by computerized records; the index files will be replaced in 3 or 4 years. This change is in the main reading room.

After a variety of "show and tell" and sharing, the meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m. for a hospitality period.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann C. Beck

FEBRUARY PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS AFRO-AMERICAN HISTORY MONTH

Our own Thelma Doswell will present a talk to our Society at the February meeting on the subject of AFRO-AMERICAN HISTORY: BLACK WOMEN AND FAMILY UNITY. The program is timed to coincide with Afro-American History Month.

Mrs. Doswell will describe how the mother tried to perpetuate family connections in spite of the splintering effects of slavery. She will highlight some of the better-known Black women in American history.

The meeting will be held Wednesday, 6 February, at the Greenbelt Library, 11 Crescent Road in Greenbelt. The speaker will immediately follow a brief business meeting which begins at 7 p.m. Following the speaker and miscellaneous announcements, refreshments will be served, about 8:30 p.m., allowing time to socialize. As always, visitors are welcome.

One regular feature of our monthly meetings is "Show and Tell." Members are encouraged to bring along news and items of genealogical interest to share with the group.

COMING IN MARCH

Our next program, Wednesday, 6 March, will feature a talk by Milton Rubincam, F.A.S.G., on GERMAN RESEARCH. Rubincam, a long-time member of our Society, also spoke on this subject to Maryland Genealogical Society last fall. Time and place remains the same.

MEET THELMA DOSWELL

You may remember that Thelma Doswell has spoken to our group before (February 1983) on her ancestral research. She displayed her nine-by-eleven-foot painted canvas family tree. She also shared slides from her trip to Africa.

Mrs. Doswell, a retired school teacher, was born and educated in Virginia. She received her B.S. degree in elementary education from Virginia State College and her M.S. in secondary education from the University of Bridgeport. She presently resides in Lewisdale, Maryland.

She is a member of numerous organizations, some of which are: The Washington Urban League, the NAACP, National Genealogical Society and other genealogical groups. She is profiled in WHO'S WHO IN GENEALOGY.

ARCHIVES RECRUITS VOLUNTEERS

NAME CHANGES --

In the Cambridge (Maryland) Chronicle of February 26, 1831, I find reference to a petition in the state legislature by Levin Wall Hall to change his name. I could understand his desire to remove the rhyming combination of names. - But to what did he want to change? - To Levin Hall Wall.

Name changes are another source of pitfalls, especially because they occur unexpectedly in the course of our research. And when we run into them we may draw the wrong conclusions as to motive.

In the case of my own genealogical efforts I was surprised to find that my great-great grandfather named John Clinton Cooper was in fact born as John Vane. I discovered this fact when flipping through Mary Meyer's book, Divorces and names changed in Maryland by act of the Legislature 1634 - 1854.

In many cases, other than divorces, names were changed in order to fulfill the wishes of others, especially to benefit from inheritances. Sometimes a wealthy uncle with no children might agree to bequeath his estate to a sister's child if a name change was agreed upon.

Sharing Our Research Experiences. Don't forget the library has three loose-leaf notebooks containing tips on genealogical research facilities in various states and countries. This is very helpful information when you are planning an out of state research trip. Pat Paulkovich put these notebooks together and works at keeping them updated. She appreciates help from members who have visited these research facilities and brings back latest leaflets and information on these facilities. This will help keep the "Sharing Notebooks" up to date.

BOOK REVIEW

By Shirley Lanqdon Wilcox, C.G.

A CHRONICLE OF BELAIR by Shirley Vlasak Baltz. Bowie, MD. The Bowie Heritage Committee. 1984. 142 pp. and 178pp. A Gift of The Bowie Heritage Committee.

This book has been divided into two parts each with its own numbering system and index. The first part deals with Belair's history and the second part is a genealogy. The history of Belair and its occupants was very carefully researched and contains extensive footnotes with citations to original documents. This is followed by an architectural analysis of the mansion and a report on archaeological excavations at the site. Part two contains a genealogy of the descendants of Samuel and Anne (Tasker) Ogle bringing the lineage to the present when information was available. Footnotes show from where each fact was obtained and the published references and Bibles are listed at the end of the chapter. This was a well researched book and we are pleased to have a copy for our library.

NOTES regarding the above wills:

Joseph HATTON [son of William HATTON] married 17 Oct. 1710, in Piscataway Parish, Lucy MARBURY. Their children are recorded in the parish register: Mary, b. 19 Apr. 1713 [d.i.], Mary b. 25 Dec. 1715, William b. 13 Apr. 1718, Joseph b. 3 June 1721, Nathaniel b. 3 Mar. 1723, Richard b. 2 Aug. 1726, Elizabeth Penalipy b. 16 --- 1729, and John b. 9 Aug. 173-.

William HATTON, the father of Joseph HATTON, died 2 Aug. 1713 according to the register, which must be in error.

Thomas and Penelope [sic] MIDDLETON had the following children registered in Piscataway Parish: Hatton b. 9 Dec. 1705, Thomas b. 29 Jan. 1707 [probably died before Dec. 1711], Mary b. 24 Feb. 1709, Penelope Weston b. 29 March 1712.

In 1719, Piscataway Hundred taxables included Joseph HATTON, Mary HATTON, and Thomas MIDDLETON. [Md. State Papers, no. 1, the Black Books, #164]

William CLARKSON, probably the son [=stepson?] of Edmund GOODRICK, was married in Piscataway Parish, 22 Nov. 1713, to Elizabeth HAGIAN. Their children registered there: Thomas b. -- Sept. 1714, William b. 10 Feb. 1716, Mary b. 18 Oct. 1717, Eliza. b. 5 Oct. 1719, and Edwd. b. 6 Oct. 1721.

In 1719, Phill. Gittings was a resident of New Scotland Hundred [Black Books, #157]. This was upper PG Co. along the Potomac River.

A cursory examination of PG indexes produced no more information about Thomas PARSONS or his family in PG. He probably came from Anne Arundel County shortly before his death. Capt. Holliday, Mr. Gant and Alexander Magruder all lived in Mattapaney Hundred [St. Paul's Parish] in 1719. Register is lost for that region.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
2 JANUARY, 1985

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 2 January, 1985, at 7:05 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright.

First Vice President Ruth I. Stultz introduced the speaker for the meeting, Joyce Candland. Mrs. Candland is associated with the LDS library in Silver Spring, and her topic was "Research in LDS Genealogical Libraries." Mrs. Candland stressed that LDS libraries are too valuable a source to be ignored by genealogists. Their microfilm includes, for example, records of U. S. courthouses in most counties prior to 1850, and 98% of records in Scotland have been filmed.

Among the other points covered by Mrs. Candland were:

- International Genealogical Index. The 1984 edition is out. It is a listing of names in the computers at Salt Lake City, nearly 88 million names worldwide. The index is by locality, then alphabetical in standardized spelling. It is mostly made up of the church's extraction program of birth and marriage records.
- Accelerated Index System. This was compiled by a private company, not the Mormon church. It is an index of the 1850 census, which was then computerized.
- Family Registry. The LDS invited genealogists to register the families on which they are working. This service is free, and the results are on microfiche, which has increased three times in size since the summer of 1983.

There were no corrections to the minutes of the December meeting as printed in the Bulletin.

Second Vice President Dorothy Haney reported one new member, Mary Taylor, from California.

Ruth Stultz announced the speaker for February's meeting would be Thelma Doswell, and in March Milton Rubincam will speak on German Research.

The Treasurer, Eugene Ernest, reported a combined total of $9217.10 in the Society's checking and savings accounts.

The next Society Council meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on January 28, 1985, at the home of Cdr. Wright.

Donald Wilson expressed his thanks for all the materials submitted for the Bulletin.

President Wright announced that he has received a letter from the National Archives regarding their spring training program for Archives volunteers. Volunteers are needed in 3 areas - Behind-the-scenes tours, information desk aides, and volunteer staff aides.

Miscellaneous announcements and information followed:

- Ruth Stultz noted that Jane Egan had spoken to our Society on Maryland's 350th anniversary. A copy of her speech is available at the Society library.
- A workshop on Family Organizations will be held on the first Saturday in April. Openings will be limited - more information will be available later.

-The Federation of Genealogical Societies has listed contributors to the Archives Gift Fund. Our Society was the 5th listed in the country.

-Ed Wright has the following publications available:

Wilmington, Delaware city directory

1st Washington directory (1822)

Delaware newspaper abstracts (1786-1795)

-In the same vein, Donald Wilson said that some midwestern states published a "Prairie Farmers" directory about 1915-1925, which gave information similar to that contained in a census.

The Bible Records lottery was won by Pat Paulkovich. Her prize was a crystal jam jar.

The meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m. for a hospitality period.

Respectfully submitted,

Ann C. Beck

Persons with these names appear in court records in St. Mary's Co., 1600-1700 and then disappear. It is believed that Francis ABSTON, who patented land in Prince George's Co., 1742, is descended from this St. Mary's Co. family, which was recorded under the above variant spellings. || OUR MARCH MEETING: || RUBINCAM OFFERS TALK || ON GERMAN RESEARCH ||

Milton Rubincam, Fellow of the American Society of Genealogists, will be the featured speaker at our next meeting, to be held Wednesday, March 6.

Among Milton's specialities is a strong knowledge of GERMAN RESEARCH which will be the topic of his talk to us. He is a past president of the National Genealogical Society, is currently the book review editor for their QUARTERLY, and is a frequent author and lecturer on genealogical topics.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. at the Greenbelt Branch Library, 11 Crescent Road, in Greenbelt, Maryland. After a brief business meeting refreshments will be served. The program is free and open to the public.

COMING IN APRIL

At our April 3 meeting at the Greenbelt Library, the speaker will be Mr. Spurgeon Terry discussing RESEARCH AT THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS. He will fill us in on the use of the new computer catalog, and its meaning for genealogical research. The talk should fit in well with our current SEMINAR series, described in the next column.

BOWIE LIBRARY TO HOST SPRING GENEALOGICAL SEMINARS

Members of the Prince George's County Genealogical Society once again will present a series of free lectures and a workshop on beginning techniques in family history research. This series, which has been co-sponsored by Prince George's County Memorial Library for about ten years, will be held in the meeting room at the Bowie Branch Library, 15210 Annapolis Road, beginning Thursday March 7; 7-9 p.m. each time. The public is invited. There is no charge for this series.

Shirley Langdon Wilcox, C.G., will address the opening session on the topics of HOW TO GET STARTED (an introduction for beginners) and EVALUATING SOURCES AND KEEPING RECORDS.

Freeman E. Morgan Jr., C.G., is the speaker for the second session, Thursday March 14. He will discuss GENEALOGICAL SOURCES AT THE NATIONAL ARCHIVES, followed by a talk on USING LIBRARIES AND ARCHIVES.

Session III, Thursday March 28, will feature Olive Jones on HOW TO FIND AND USE COURTHOUSE RECORDS, followed by Jean Sargent on GENEALOGICAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Finally, on Thursday, April 4, you can get help with your personal research problems at a WORKSHOP in which experienced researchers will be available for consultation.

THE "MUG BOOK"

I am currently working on the re-printing of one of the "Portrait and Biographical Record," books of the Eastern Shore of Maryland. It's style is similar to other biographical books of its day. Most of these so called, "Mug Books" were compiled and printed in the late 1800's. These biographies were based on material contributed by the subject and paid for by the same individual.

Needless to say these articles were highly flattering and lacking in any documentation. If the subject started his adult life with little funds the writer often made him into an Horatio Alger type. The writer emphasized the high moral character and prominence of the individual and his family.

Nevertheless these aggrandizing personal histories contain a wealth of genealogy. Many list names of family members back several generations, with dates of birth and death and other facts. They can be quite useful if you can find one. Sometimes you might find a copy at the Library of Congress or the DAR Library. You will have a greater likelihood of finding a copy in a library located in the region covered by the book. As seems typical of this type of book, they are usually not properly indexed. The index often only lists the single name of the person on whom the biography is written, not the maiden names or names of siblings, or ancestors, included in the biography.

I found one biography in the Eastern Shore Mug Book that discloses information on a Prince George's family. The individual was William Kennedy Carroll, M. D. who lived in Queen Anne's County in the late 1800's. The article indicates that his paternal grandfather, was a native of Ann Arundel Co. It went on to say that Dr. Carroll's father, David Carroll, was born in Prince George's Co. and became the pioneer in the manufacturing of the fabric commonly known as duck, used in clothing. The item lists all the living members of that family and where they were living. Although most of the article centered on the accomplishments of Dr. Carroll it also furnished information on relatives not in that area - information that might not be found anywhere else.

These popular biographies can be another avenue when others seem closed. - And will my re-printing include a more complete indexing? Why do you ask?

Ed Wright

A 300-POUND SCRAP OF INFORMATION

Seen at a Halloween party: a tombstone inscribed "Mary L. STENGER, March 12, 1885 - June 7, 1938." It was from either a cemetery on Ritchie Highway in Glen Burnie, or maybe from Baltimore City Cemetery. Your Grandmother?

EXTRACTS FROM GENEALOGICAL EXCHANGES...By Pricia Burk Paulkovich

GENEALOGY TOMORROW, Atlanta, GA, Vol. I, No. 2, Nov. 1984, has an article on "Computerizing Cemetery Records," by Diane Dieterlé, giving an example of Cobb Co, GA, cemetery book which was prepared using a data base management program. Fields were allowed for ID (the record number), full name, plot number, date of birth and death, and comments. Also, a field was allowed for the cemetery number (used to sort but not print.) This arrangement allowed the computer to print out entries by cemetery, in the order the tombstone appeared in the cemetery (making it possible for the reader to see who was buried next to whom); and used the ID number (record number) as the number of the person in the index--meaning that the index was built into the data base (and did not have to be typed separately.) Diane says that to print the index, a separate screen was formatted on the computer, which switched the ID and full name fields, and did not print the other fields. She adds: "This is very easy to do. Just read your manual."

GENEALOGY TODAY, May 1984. Diane Dieterle has written an explanation to designing a form for your family group sheet on your computer, and has a copy of her form displayed.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
6 FEBRUARY, 1985

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 6 February, 1985, at 7:15 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright.

The President asked for corrections or additions to the minutes of the January meeting as printed in the Bulletin. There was one correction. Under the paragraph referencing the Accelerated Index System, the minutes read "It is an index of the 1850 census..." This was corrected to read "It is an index of censuses up to and including the 1850 census." The minutes were approved with this correction.

In response to the President's request for chair reports, Shirley Wilcox, Special Publications Chairperson, announced that the 1828 Tax List has gone to the printer. It will be priced at $10 through May 1, and $12 after that date. A flyer announcing the book will be included with an upcoming bulletin. Shirley asked for assistance in readying the flyers for bulk mailing, and also asked members to save re-useable padded bags or small boxes for mailings.

Education Chairperson Dorothy Rainwater announced a Beginners Seminar will be held March 7, 14, 28, and April 4, from 7:00-9:00 p.m. at the library in Bowie, Maryland. The April 4 session will be a workshop. Speakers for the seminar are Shirley Wilcox, Freeman Morgan, Olive Jones, and Jean Sargent.

Archivist Ivan Rainwater informed the membership that the library table each meeting will have a "give-away" section of notices, magazines, etc.

Second Vice-President Dorothy Haney reported one new member, and five guests were present at the meeting.

President Wright told the members that our meetings will be held, even in inclement weather, if the library is open.

Ruth I. Stultz, First Vice-President, introduced the evening's speaker, Thelma Doswell. Mrs. Doswell spoke on "The Black Woman's Role in America", and focused attention on the dual burden of black women, struggling for their rights as a race as well as women.

After a short break there were the following announcements:

- Editor Donald Wilson emphasized the deadline for the March Bulletin - February 10. Also, the index for 1983-84 is nearly complete.
- The Treasurer, Eugene Ernest, reported a combined total of $9451 in the Society accounts.
- The refreshment committee asked members to contribute refreshments for the March meeting.
- Jean Sargent noted that the genealogy software, Family Roots, is an often-recommended package. Their manual can be purchased for $15 from Quinsept, Inc., PO Box 216, Lexington, MA 02173.

- Ruth Stultz announced the speaker for the March meeting will be Milton Rubincam, speaking on German Research.

The meeting adjourned at 9:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann C. Beck

Book Reviews

WARRANTS FOR LANDS IN SOUTH CAROLINA 1672-1679 edited by A. S. Salley, Jr. Columbia, SC. The Historical Commission of South Carolina. 1910. (Reprinted 1962). 222pp. A Gift of Shirley Brasher McCoy.

As explained by the title, this book contains South Carolina land warrants for the period 1672-1679. They appear to be complete transcriptions, not just abstracts and the original spelling and punctuation is kept. All names are indexed.

RECORDS IN THE BRITISH PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE RELATING TO SOUTH CAROLINA 1698-1700, indexed by A. S. Salley. Columbia, S.C. The Historical Commission of South Carolina. 1946. 205pp. A gift of Shirley Brasher McCoy.

Transcripts of records concerning South Carolina as found in the British Public Record Office were made by W. Noel Sainsbury and his assistants and procured in 1895 for the Historical Commission of the State of South Carolina. These handwritten transcripts are reproduced in facsimile for this volume and an index has been added for quick reference use.

DATED INDEX TO MARRIAGES, ORANGE COUNTY, FLORIDA, PART I: APRIL, 1869 - DECEMBER, 1899, compiled by Jean Geisler Vogelius. Central Florida Genealogical & Historical Society, Inc. 121pp. Gift of Walter T. Keeseey.

This is an alphabetical listing of males and females, all combined into one list. Because of this females will appear twice, once in the list under their maiden name, and secondly under their husbands name. Each entry include the date of marriage and the volume and page number of the original record. The preface tells where to write for copies of the original record.

NICHOLAS WORTHINGTON HAMMOND, THE ADVENTURER 1822-1917, compiled by Janet Wilson Riley. 1984. 65pp. A gift of F. Edward Wright. Copies may be ordered from Family Line Publications, 13405 Collingwood Terrace, Silver Spring, MD 20904.

In 1849 Nicholas Hammond made a 200 day trip around the Horn from Baltimore to San Francisco. He kept a diary and it is printed with few alterations in this volume. Charts showing the ancestry of Nicholas Hammond are also included along with brief sketches on a number of the ancestors. A surname index at the back of the book makes it easy to locate names of interest.

SPURGEON TERRY TO DESCRIBE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS RESEARCH

At our April meeting, someone familiar with the internal workings of the Library of Congress will present a talk on how to make best use of its facilities.

The topic: SWITCHING FROM CARD CATALOG TO COMPUTER WHILE RESEARCHING AT THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS. Designed for beginners and advanced students, his talk will tell us about the Scorpio and Mums computer systems.

The speaker, Spurgeon Terry, joined our Society in 1984 following his early retirement as USDA law librarian. He avidly researches these surnames: TERRY, HOOKS, CALLEN, WRIGHT, DAILEY, VINSON, RILEY, SHANNON and McCREARY in the areas of MD, NC, SC, and AL.

Born in Monroe County, Ala., Terry settled in the Washington area after U.S. Naval service. He married Jean Tippet, a native Washingtonian, and they moved to Hyattsville to rear their ten children.

Terry, a former employee of the Legislative Reference Service (now Congressional Research Service) at the Library of Congress, was also librarian at the Weather Bureau before transferring to USDA. Active in various civic organizations, Terry was elected to two terms on the Hyattsville City Council.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m., Wednesday, April 3, at the Greenbelt Library, 11 Crescent Road, Greenbelt, Maryland. After our speaker refreshments will be served and business will be conducted. The meeting is free and open to the public. Please come!

Spring Is Here

Spring has sprung,
The Grass has riz,
I wonder where the Genealogists is.

At this time of the year the tempo begins to pick up. This is noticeable in all types of activity, including family research. Attendance at our meetings begins to swell, the sale of source books increases, a surge in correspondence takes place - as preparations are being made for renewed attack on old and new research problems. The urge is almost as strong as the biological forces that awake the hibernating bear and send him off to begin his foraging.

As you awake to new beginnings take sufficient time to do as much preliminary work as possible. Before you arrive at a source center (library, archives, courthouse, etc.) have as many specific objectives written down as practicable. Check before hand on the days and hours that the place is open. Have plenty of change for the copying machine, and parking meters. Take lots of sharpened pencils. When you arrive get acquainted with the folks in charge (get their name) and let them know what you are doing.

By the way, keep the rest of us in mind as you become familiar with sources and source centers. Consider passing on some facet at the next meeting or write a short article for the Bulletin.

Happy Hunting.

Ed Wright

ANCESTRY SOUGHT FOR STRAY OGLE WOMAN

When Shirley Baltz and I were working on the genealogy of the Ogle family for the city history, A CHRONICLE OF BELAIR, we received a letter from a Texan who is not an Ogle descendant but was a former resident of Bowie. He provided some information which we were unable to fit into the family and which we did not include in our book. He stated that Anna Elizabeth Ogle, referred to below, was the daughter of William Ogle and Mary Cooke. We think there may have been a confusion of names and that perhaps she is the daughter of William Cooke Ogle—but we didn't know he had one. If anyone can help, please write to Shirley Baltz, 12217 Fleming Lane, Bowie MD 20715.

Our gentleman correspondent quoted the following from the 1894 PORTRAIT AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD of Sheboygan County, Wisconsin:

"Hon. George H. Brickner, Member of Congress from the Fifth Wisconsin District, and President of the Brickner Woolen Mills Company, of Sheboygan Falls, was born January 21, 1834, in the village of Anspach, Bavaria, Germany, which is situated near Wurzburg, on the Main, and is a son of Michael and Margaret (Reddelbach) Brickner.

"On the 9th of September, 1858, Mr. Brickner was united in marriage at the Church of the Holy Name, in Sheboygan, to Miss Anna Elizabeth Ogle. Mrs. Brickner was born in Maryland, and is a daughter of William and Mary Ogle. She is a descendant of the noted Ogle family of Maryland...

"Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Brickner, of whom three are living (1894). Georgianna, the eldest, is the wife of T. C. Hawkins, of Tiffin, Ohio, who is manager of the Brickner and Schieck Glass Company, of that city; Mary Margaret was the wife of Edward Chase, and her death occurred February 24, 1893; William Clay is Superintendent and manager of the Brickner Woolen Mills Company, of Sheboygan Falls; and Lillah Isabella, the youngest of the family, resides with her parents."

GLEANNING THROUGH TEXAS HISTORY FOUND IN "THE MIER EXPEDITION DIARY"
by JOSEPH D McCUTCHAN p 42, note 18 abstracted by Bill Wiseman

SAMUEL HAMILTON WALKER was born in Prince George County 24 February 1817. At the age of nineteen enlisted for service in the Indian War from June 1836 to May 1837. In 1842 he went to Texas where he became a member of Captain Jesse Billingsley's command in the Woll campaign and performed the duties of a scout. Later in the year he served in the Somerwell and Mier expeditions. He soon became one of the most distinguished of Texas rangers. He was one of the leaders to overthrow the Mexican guard while a prisoner at the hacienda Salado, but was among those recaptured by the Mexicans and imprisoned in Perote Castle, Mexico. During the Mexican War he was killed while leading a charge into Humantra, Tlaxcala, Mexico on 9 October 1847.

Mrs. Ruth Bounds, of the Ivy Hill Cemetery Association, Laurel, advises us that they have received confirmation from descendants that the following persons were buried in lot #57 of the old part of the cemetery, and that they once had markers which were maliciously removed:

Albert Nichols, George Nichols, Frank Nichols, John Nichols,
Annie Laura Nichols (No dates are available as yet for these graves.)

* * * *

Mrs. Kay Mayhew advises that the following graves were located in the Prince George's County Land Fill on Brown Station Road, Upper Marlboro, and in April 1975 they were opened and moved to a cemetery on Sheriff Road.

Jeremiah Berry b. 1715 d. Apr 15, 1769
Mary Berry b. 1715 d. Oct. 15, 1792

Since nothing was found under the stones, a handful of dirt was taken to the new grave site and buried. The large flat stone broke into several pieces and was replaced with a bronze marker. A week or so later, two skulls and some large bones were dug up near the site of the gravestone. If the stone had remained directly over the graves, then there were other people buried in the area, but the men from Public Works believed that the graves had shifted.

On page 573 of "STONES AND BONES" we referred to the DUVALL/DUVAL family cemetery which was then inaccessible because of construction of a new four-lane highway. The road is now completed and is an extension of Enterprise Road, Route 556. Excavations of the site have been made by members of the Duvall Society, and these archeologists have found evidence of 15 graves, as well as stumps of cedar trees in line with the graves, and fence posts about a foot beyond. Plans are under way to remove the graves to the historic Duvall mansion "Marietta" which is about one-half mile down the road on a side lane.

Book Reviews

By Shirley Langdon Wilcox C.G.

MARYLAND EASTERN SHORE VITAL RECORDS 1751-1775, by F. Edward Wright. 1984. 124pp. A gift of F. Edward Wright. Copies may be ordered from Family Line Publications, 13405 Collingwood Terrace, Silver Spring, MD 20904.

The records in this volume are abstracts from microfilm or photostat copies found at several different repositories. Included are church records of Protestant Episcopal, Presbyterian, Quaker and Nicholite church members. For the Protestant Episcopal faith there are records from Shrewsbury South Sassafras Parish, St. Paul's Parish, St. Luke's Parish, St. Johns P.E. Church, St. Martins P.E. Church, Dorchester Parish, Stepney Parish, St. Peter's Parish, Somerset Parish and Coventry Parish. Cecil Montly Meeting, Third Haven Meeting, Nicholites and Manokin Presbyterian Church records are also included. An every name index makes genealogical searching very easy. This book should save hours of research for those doing Eastern Shore research since locating early church records is often time consuming.

DELAWARE NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS 1786-1795, Volume 1, by F. E. Wright. 1984. 78pp. A Gift of F. Edward Wright. Copies may be ordered from Family Line Publication, 13405 Collingwood Terrace, Silver Spring, MD 20904.

According to the author, this volume contains abstracts of every major source of Delaware newspapers except for the collection held by the American Antiquarian Society. This volume contains abstracts of material from the Delaware Gazette and Delaware and Eastern Shore Advertiser. Entries are keyed by the name of the paper and the repository. The date of issue is followed by brief abstractions of data of interest to genealogists and local historians. All names are indexed. Tracking down ancestors in this time period can often be difficult so it is great to have a new published source available for this area.

WILMINGTON DELAWARE DIRECTORY of 1814. 27pp. A gift of F. Edward Wright. Copies may be ordered from Family Line Publications, 13405 Collingwood Terrace, Silver Spring, MD 20904.

This directory contains an alphabetical listing of the inhabitants of Wilmington and another smaller listing of the inhabitants of Brandywine. Most entries show the name of the person, occupation and address. An appendix shows clergy, physicians, attorneys and counselors at law, county magistrates, conveyancers and surveyors, banks, public offices and buildings, places of worship, seminaries of learning, stages and packets, packets, and societies. This should be a valuable aid for locating persons in a non-census year.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
6 MARCH, 1985

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 6 March, 1985, at 7:05 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright.

The President asked for corrections or additions to the minutes of the February meeting as printed in the Bulletin. There were no changes, and the minutes were approved.

Cdr. Wright announced that the Society's Council would meet on 11 March, 1985, at 7:30 p.m. He then asked for chair reports. Dorothy Rainwater, Education Chairperson, reminded the members that the seminar for beginning genealogists begins 7 March, 1985, at the Bowie Library. All classes are on Thursday evenings, including the workshop. Dorothy also asked for support for the Belair Mansion's book show on 31 March.

Archivist Ivan Rainwater invited members to utilize the library facilities, including the Sunday hours on 10 March.

Second Vice-President Dorothy Haney announced 4 additions to our membership, two of whom are searching for Prince George's County ancestors. Irene D'Amato, the indexer for the Bulletin, reported that the indexing of the 1983-84 issues is nearly complete.

Treasurer Eugene Ernest reported approximately $10,000 in the Society's combined accounts. He commented that expenses are less than budgeted, and income from special publications is up. Shirley Wilcox, who is in charge of Special Publications, announced that 44 orders have already been received for the 1828 Tax List. This book is at the printers.

First Vice-President Ruth Stultz introduced the speaker for the meeting, Milton Rubincam. Mr. Rubincam spoke on "German Research." He stressed the importance of thorough research in this country prior to attempting to trace one's ancestors in Germany.

After a short break, the following announcements were made:

- Bill Miller announced the annual conference of the Federation of Genealogical Societies will be held in Kansas City, 15-17 August, 1985.
- Bill also said that the Archives Gift Fund will be choosing its next project soon. One possibility would be microfilming some recently-discovered passenger lists of the 19th century for the ports of Galveston and San Francisco.
- Genealogical Council of Maryland will hold their spring meeting on 30 March in the Howard County Central Library, Columbia, Md. The featured talk will be on the new Mormon Library in Ellicott City.
- Olive Jones is serving as the Society's representative on a project to compile Maryland Church and Cemetary Records. She needs assistance in determining the dates of origin for several Prince George's County churches. Only churches established prior to 1910 will be included in the project.

- Freeman Morgan reminded the members of two upcoming meetings of the National Genealogical Society. The 13 March meeting will discuss "Information to Cross the Atlantic." The 6 April meeting will feature Robin Bush, the archivist of Somerset County, England. The NGS meets at 2:30 p.m. in the Martin Luther King Library, Washington, DC.
- Ruth Stultz announced the speaker for the April meeting will be Spurgeon Terry. His topic will be "Research at the Library of Congress," with emphasis on using their new computer system.

The Bible Records lottery was won by Joseph Owens. His prize was a gift certificate from the Hecht Company.

The meeting was attended by 109 people, including seven guests. It was adjourned at 9:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann C. Beck

MEMBERS TO SHARE PROBLEMS AND SOLUTIONS

Our next meeting, to be held Wednesday, May 1, will give members and guests an opportunity to share information on their genealogical activities.

Please bring something to offer to the others: a story, a how-to tip, a question, or a conundrum (a really tough problem). Maybe another person will be able to help you with your problem.

Ruth Stultz, our program officer, asks members to also bring along a favorite book for a "sharing display." Be sure to wear a name tag during the meeting, to make getting acquainted easier. We will have time for socializing and sampling refreshments after our business meeting.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. at the Greenbelt Library, 11 Crescent Road, in Greenbelt, Maryland. As always, guests and visitors are welcome.

working tool. People now come to the library to do research and not merely to pick up a book. We would hope that the library will continue to grow. For this reason we encourage members to think about the library and consider making book or periodical donations. The more the library grows the more helpful it becomes to its members.

Enrollment Books

Among the many types of Civil War records are the enrollment books. In these books was information collected to confirm or deny claims of disqualification for the draft. Contained in the remarks column are comments of the enumerator which can be of value to the family historian. In most cases the section is blank. However for some a description of causes for possible disqualification are given which may not only reveal physical handicaps, but other valued information. I found dates of birth given in one district in Caroline County in order to establish that the enrollee was under age (under 18). In a Harford County district an Irish imigrant gave the date he arrived in this country and the county in Ireland he left, in order to establish that he was a foreigner and therefore disqualified.

In the enrollment books for Prince George's County and other counties you find the remarks, "Saic to have gone to Virginia." In District Number 4 of Prince George's County, of 178 enrolled there were 9 such notations. Those named were: Eugene Brooke, Upper Marlboro, 18; Clement Hollyday, Nottingham, 20; Clement D. Hill, Nottingham, 34; Thomas K. Naylor, Nottingham, 19; George V. Perrie, Horsehead, 21; Albert W. Perrie, Horsehead; Robert Smith, Brandywine, clerk, 19; Aquilla Wilson, 30; John L. Waring, 21.

Most individuals searching through these records for additional information on their ancestor would find nothing of value. Only in a few cases do the remarks add to knowledge about the individual. For that reason I see a need for publishing these somewhat rare nuggets as a collection of Civil War gleanings - making this information readily accessible.

Happy hunting.

MAYHEW SEEKS INFORMATION ABOUT HUGUENOTS AND COMPUTER PROGRAMS

Kay Mayhew, Past President of our Society, asks if any of our readers has access to The Register of Ancestors for the Huguenot Society (published in 1975). She would like to consult it if possible. Also, she is interested in personal, critical comments on specific genealogical computer programs. (It would be beneficial for members to share computer software knowledge at our May meeting.)

Kay reports "My husband and I have bought a house on Martha's Vineyard and expect to move there in the fall. I shall miss this group!"

EXTRACTS FROM GENEALOGICAL EXCHANGES...By Pricia Burk Paulkovich

GENEALOGICAL FORUM, Portland, OR, Dec. 1984. The president's news recounts the two major Dutch immigrations to North America. The first began in 1619 when they came to the United States and Canada, settling primarily in New Amsterdam and on Manhattan Island. The second mass emigration from the Netherlands had no connection with the first group. It began in 1847 and lasted for several decades. Michigan was the main destination of this group.

In addition, in this issue is an article on county geography by Robert L. Benson; miscellaneous Polk Co. OR records which were found in a collection of Documents and Stamps; and a continuation of Columbia Co. probate records.

HOWARD CO, MD GenSoc, Dec. 12, 1984, also has information on Dutch Ancestry Research, adding a third wave of Dutch to the U.S., between the two World Wars, when those Dutch went to the Midwest and California. It is pointed out that the Dutch system of inheritance was directly opposite to the English. The Dutch youngest son inherited the father's land. The older sons had already been provided for at the time of their marriage, as had the daughters with their dowries. Thus, the youngest son and his wife were responsible for the old folks and inherited what they had.

GENEALOGY TOMORROW, Dec. 1984; 1860 Georgia Census (soliciting volunteers to compile); ROOTS II Software; publishing a family history; Illinois research; and New York State and Federal Census Records.

SOUTHERN INDIANA GenSoc, New Albany, Oct. 1984. "German-Americans Who Came to Indiana via Kentucky," by Col. Robert C. Jobson, with short histories of 31 of these families and background on migration from Germany in the early 1700's.

OKLAHOMA GenSoc Qtrly, Vol. 29, #3, 1984, reports that early divorces required an act of the state legislature and that records may be found at the various state libraries. PIONEER TIMES, Mid-MO GenSoc has been publishing many of the divorces granted by the Missouri legislature in the early years.

MIAMI VALLEY GenSoc. Vol. 14, #2, fall 1984. There is a grave registration file for soldiers buried in Ohio. It is indexed and a check of the index will be made and a copy of the record sent, if found, at no charge. Be sure to send SASE. Write Division of Soldiers Claims, Ohio Adj. Office, State House, Columbus, O. 43215.

BULLETIN, Giles Co. Historical Society, Pulaski, TN, Jan. 27, 1985, informs us that a bill stiffening the penalties for destroying or damaging cemeteries was signed into law by Tennessee governor in April 1984. No one OWNS a cemetery on his land even if there is a deed, and descendants have the right to come and go to the burial sites.

BOOK REVIEWS

By Shirley Langdon Wilcox C.G.

THE BERKEY BOOK by Rev. William Albert Berkey and Ruth Berkey Reichley. 1984. 527pp. A gift of Ruth Berkey Reichley.

The main body of this book was compiled by Rev. William Albert Berkey over a period of fifty years. Additional material has been added by his daughter Ruth Berkey Reichley. They have collected information on all persons of the Berkey surname and its numerous spellings. Included in this book are the lines of forty five families, forty of which are variant forms of Burkey. The comprehensive index includes the maiden and married names of females.

THE HISTORY AND ANCESTRY OF REV. JOHN FOSTER 1735-1800, HIS FAMILY, HIS LIFE, HIS ANCESTRY by Wayne E. Dawson. 1984. 255pp. A gift of the author.

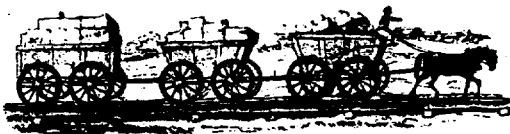

This book is the result of a study by nineteen descendants of Rev. John Foster of Ross County, Ohio. Their purpose was to determine his ancestry. They have now come to believe that he was a grandson of John and Elizabeth (Green) Foster of Prince George's County, MD who were married in 1708. The material has been carefully compiled; the sources are given and many documents appear in transcribed form. The compilers can be proud of the quality product they have created.

AMERICAN ANCESTORS AND COUSINS OF THE PRINCESS OF WALES by Gary Boyd Roberts and William Addams Reitwiesner. Baltimore, Genealogical Publishing Co., Inc. 1984. 194pp. A gift of Freeman E. Morgan, Jr.

It has been estimated that Princess Diana has twenty to thirty million distant kinsmen in this country. The authors have delved into the ancestry of the princess and have printed a brief synopsis. In addition to showing her ancestry, they have also included brief biographies of persons of note who are her distant kinsman. Since the Prince of Wales also has some American ancestry, a chapter on his Virginia ancestry has also been included. The book is indexed so it is easy for the curious to make a quick check to see if they might have any ancestors in common with the present royalty.

WASHINGTON DIRECTORY of 1822. 43pp. A gift of F. Edward Wright. Copies may be ordered from FamilyLine Publications, 13405 Collingwood Terrace, Silver Spring, MD 20904.

Early city directories are often hard to locate as few copies exist. This transcript of the Washington, D.C. city directory for 1822 should be of great help to those doing historical or genealogical research. Except for the omissions, corrections, and removals section, it contains an alphabetical listing of the residents, their occupation and address.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
3 APRIL, 1985

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 3 April, 1985, at 7:00 p.m. in the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright.

The President asked for corrections/additions to the minutes of the March meeting as printed in the Bulletin. There were no changes and the minutes were approved.

Olive Jones, our Society's representative on the cemetery project, has names of Prince George's County churches which need further research. Records on several others were incomplete.

First Vice President Ruth Stultz made two announcements. First, handouts are available from Milton Rubincam's talk on German research. Secondly, the new book by Dr. Anne Butler entitled 'Daughters of Joy, Sisters of Misery' can be purchased through the Society.

Ruth then introduced the evening's speaker, Spurgeon Terry. Mr. Terry is a former employee of the Library of Congress and spoke on the facilities there, emphasizing the new computerized services.

After a short break, the President called for announcements and chair reports. Education Chairperson Dorothy Rainwater announced that volunteers are needed to assist with the seminar workshop 4 April.

The Maryland Genealogical Society's seminar is 13 April at 1:00 p.m. And the Mid-Atlantic Germanic Society will hold their spring seminar 27 April at the Holiday Inn in College Park, Maryland.

Bill Wiseman conducted the Bible records lottery, which was won by Ruth Dungan for the Little family Bible. The prize was a decorated tray.

Eugene Ernest, Treasurer, has received the bill for the printing of the 1828 Tax List. He also mentioned that $800 has been received from orders for the book. Shirley Wilcox announced that the tax list book is now available, and she presented certificates of appreciation to those who assisted with its preparation.

Jean Sargent is in the process of revising the Bibliography.

Second Vice President Dorothy Haney introduced 4 new members. Donald Wilson, Bulletin Editor, informed the membership that the May Bulletin will contain the membership list as well as the renewal letter for 1985-86.

Ruth Stultz said that the May meeting's program will be devoted exclusively to members "Show and Tell" experiences. President Wright announced Dorothy Haney will head this year's nominating committee for officer/chair vacancies. The nominations are due at the May meeting.

The meeting was attended by 109 people and adjourned at 9:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Ann C. Beck

JANE ROUSH MCCAFFERTY, C.G. AWARD
TO BE BESTOWED ON JUNE 5, 1985

The McCafferty family on behalf of Jane, former Editor of the Society Bulletin, and a Certified Genealogist, has established an Award for Excellence to be given by the Society President each year. Last year the recipient was Jean Sargent, Chair of the Records Committee and the Editor of one of the most successful publications of the Society, Stones and Bones.

This year's recipient has been chosen by President Ed Wright but his or her name will not be announced until June 5. The principle requirement to be considered for the Award is the member's contribution to the Society. The President makes that determination. The other stipulation is that one or more of the McCafferty family be on hand to add their congratulations to the recipient.

Plan to attend to give your appreciation.

CRAMER TO EDIT BULLETIN

William S. Cramer, who formerly edited a Navy newsletter and now has time to help us out, has agreed to edit this BULLETIN during the coming year, beginning with the September issue.

We wish him well. Notes of congratulation and items for upcoming BULLETINS can be mailed to him at 11512 Colt Terrace, Silver Spring, MD 20902.

WILSON TO SHOW HOW TO "FIND" LOST LAND RECORDS

Reconstructing Lost Land Records will be the topic of the talk presented by Don Wilson at our next meeting. This is the same talk Don gave before the National Genealogical Society in January. Land records are very important for genealogical research. In some places, all local land record books have been lost or destroyed. Don's thesis is that much of the "lost" information can be reconstructed from other, surviving sources. Come see how he goes about doing it.

The meeting will be held Wednesday, June 5, beginning at 7 p.m., at the Greenbelt Library, 11 Crescent Road, Greenbelt, MD. The meeting includes refreshments and election of officers for the coming year. It is free and open to the public.

Our speaker, Don Wilson, has been editor of the PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY BULLETIN for the past year. He formerly worked for the the Prince George's County Library System, but now is Virginia Librarian for Prince William County, Manassas, VA. He has had a busy time this past year keeping up with our BULLETIN deadlines, as well as participating in programs of the Prince William County Genealogical Society and the Archeological Society of Va. He hopes he will have time for more personal matters (including research) during the coming year.

INDEXES

What a frustration it is to find a major work without an adequate index. For example, Thomas Scharf's History of Western Maryland is an outstanding source of genealogy on many of the early settlers, but the index includes only a few names.

Fortunately individuals and groups have recognized the need and have created supplementary indexes. Indexes to Scharf's work are included in a collection of card indexes, held by the Maryland Historical Society. Other examples: An index to Johnson's History of Cecil County prepared by the Cecil County Genealogical Society; the Harford County Genealogical Society is currently indexing the "Mug Book" for Harford and Cecil County.

Some persons are even proposing "Indexes of Indexes." Take for example the Archives of Maryland. These 72 volumes should be checked whenever working in the colonial period. This requires a run to a major library and flipping through all 72 indices. To make the job easier, Robert Barnes proposes a single index of names (people only), encompassing all 72 volumes.

Such projects are all the more feasible with the use of Data Base programs. Extending the use of computers even further one can easily see the possibility of accessing other indexes contained in data bases by computer modems.

But one doesn't have to have a computer to index; 3 x 5 cards are still in vogue. And whatever we do today can contribute to the furtherance of indexes, master indexes, data bases, etc. to be used in the future.

BEALL (BELL) FAMILY HISTORY BEING COLLECTED

The Family History Committee of the Montgomery County Historical Society, which is housed in the Upton Beall house in Rockville, MD, is launching an all-out saturation research effort to locate and study all Maryland BEALL family records up through 1850. They are, among other things, collecting BEALL family traditions, especially the line of Alexander BEALL (the immigrant). They hope to have as many legends and traditions recorded as possible by this coming September. Variations of the name, as found in the records include: BEAL, BEALE, BEALL, BEALLE, BEEL, BELL. Please send your BEALL stories to Genevieve Wimsatt, Montgomery County Historical Society Library, 103 W. Montgomery Avenue, Rockville, MD 20850. Phone (301) 762-1492 or (after 6 p.m.) 762-1576. ## CEMETERY RECORDS OF PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY MARYLAND

Column #5 - Supplemental Material

Among the "Cemeteries Not Included" in the above-named book, but listed on page 619, were cemeteries opened since 1900 and/or so large as to fill a whole book by themselves. We would like to add some interesting material discovered about some of these cemeteries.

Cedar Hill Cemetery at 4111 Pennsylvania Ave., Suitland, consists of about 135 acres and currently has around 54,000 graves. It received the name Cedar Hill in 1913, but was known as Forest Lake Cemetery prior to that. A Mr. Starkweather purchased 60 3/8 acres of part of the "Nonesuch" plantation from Rosa Suit in 1893, and he started Forest Lake Cemetery several years later. Although the oldest known tombstone in the cemetery is for "Philenia W. Pattee, died Nov. 1, 1871 AE 58 yrs," it was probably moved from a family cemetery in later years, as have numerous other graves. There is a mass grave in the cemetery for the victims of the Terra Cotta Railroad wreck which was near Brookland, D.C. It was reported in the "Star" on 31 Dec 1906 that there were more than half a hundred victims and 45 bodies identified. It is interesting to note that early churches did their baptizing in the pond in the cemetery. Burial records are on master file cards but will be going on computer files soon.

Harmony Memorial Park at 7101 Sheriff Road, Landover, is a very large and interesting Black cemetery and has about 64,000 graves at present. The "Columbian Harmony Society" was started in 1825 in Washington, D.C., by a group of free Negroes, with a major objective to establish a dignified burial place outside of the "colored only" sections of the white cemeteries. In 1829 the Society purchased a tract of 7 lots at 5th St. and Boundary St. (now Florida Ave.) The cemetery was known as "Harmoneon." In 1859 Harmoneon was moved to a new site on Rhode Island Ave., known as the "Youngsborough tract," and the name changed to "Harmony Cemetery." Harmony stayed at the Rhode Island Avenue address for about 100 years, but the site became almost filled, and a number of proposals were considered to find a new site. A Maryland real estate investor Louis H. Bell offered land on Sheriff Road, and his proposal was accepted in 1959. On May 16, 1960 began a five-month process of removal and reinterment of 37,000 graves to the new site, and this was reported to have been one of the largest cemetery moves in history. Harmony now has a generous perpetual care fund to insure its beauty and upkeep forever. Although originated for the use of early Washington's free Negroes, Harmony at its various locations has interred persons of many races, religions, and nationalities. Its records have been put on computer files.

National Capital Hebrew Cemetery located at corner of Fable St. and Abel Ave. in Capital Heights, is the oldest Jewish cemetery in the County. It has about 3000 graves and is 100-125 years old. The early graves do not have existing markers. Records are located at Beth Sholom Synagogue, 7930 Eastern Ave., Washington, D.C. (Tel. 726-3869) Card file records are being transcribed to computer files for easier access. The National Capital Hebrew Cemetery Association consists of several Congregations and Lodges in addition to Beth Sholom Synagogue.

- Wed. 4 - OUR MEETING, 7 pm, Greenbelt Library, 11 Crescent Rd, Greenbelt, MD. Program to be announced. Free.

FUN TIME AT MAY 1 MEETING

Ten members shared their genealogical stories with us with three judges deciding the winners. Competing for prizes for most interesting genie account were Dorothy Rainwater, Elizabeth Reedy, and Rosalie McCarthy who received a prize. The most unusual genie story rewarded Marge Miller with a prize. Rudolph A. Krutar and Bob Wright told a computer story and Bob won his prize: his also was a funny story. Charlotte Couzantino was rewarded for her suggestions about new places to find records. She was competing with Loren Buchanan.

In the funniest category it was a close race for Kay Mayhew and Spurgeon Terry, but Spurgeon told us how to get out of the woods when genie hunting so the prize went to him.

Ruth Stultz, Program Chair, introduced the judges: Pat (herecome the judge) Paulkovich, Irma Nicholson and Jim McCafferty. Jim warned dire consequences if someone exceeded their time. No one did, so Jim rang the ear splitting cowbell at the end of the contest.

EXTRACTS FROM GENEALOGICAL EXCHANGES...By Pricia Burk Paulkovich

JOHNSON CO. (KS) GENEALOGIST, Vol XII, #3, Dec. 1984, describes a wedding in 1812 in its "An Article From Out of the Past," which was found in stacks at York Co, PA Historical & GenSoc Library. In part, it says, "The brides father, who gave her away, wore a black cloth coat, black breeches, and black silk stockings. The brides mother was gowned in a heavy silk dress with short sleeves, a white neckhandkerchief, and white quilted cap..."

PIONEER TIMES, Mid-MO GenSoc, Vol. 8, #4, Oct. 1984. GENEALOGY, Family History Section, Indiana Historical Society, Feb 1985. The Atty. General of Kansas has ruled that Kansas state records of births, deaths, and other vital statistics cannot generally be made available for genealogical study. State law restricts access to these records to people who need the records to determine personal or property rights. This ruling was handed down after the GenSoc of Utah had proposed a joint microfilming project of birth and death records after which the Kansas State Historical Society would have received copies of the microfilms in exchange for obtaining approval for copying these records.

PARADISE GenSoc, Paradise, CA, Vol 17, #3, Dec. 1984. A new service--Research Papers--is available at Branch Libraries of the LDS Church. Each paper is a survey of records available in re-searching each locality. Some include maps. For a list of Research Papers and their prices, write to: The Gen. Dept., 50 East North Temple St., Salt Lake City, UT 84105.

BOOK REVIEWS

By Shirley Langdon Wilcox C.G.

NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS OF CECIL & HARFORD COUNTIES, 1822-1830, by F. Edward Wright. 1984. 81pp. A gift of F. Edward Wright. Copies may be ordered from Family Line Publications, 13405 Collingwood Terrace, Silver Spring, MD 20904.

Material for this volume came from newspapers located at the Library of Congress, Maryland Historical Society and the Enoch Pratt Free Library in Baltimore. Included are abstracts from the Elkton Press, Abingdon Patriot and Independent Citizen. Following the name of the paper and date of issue is an abstract of items of interest to genealogists and local historians. The index includes not only person names but also other items of interest such as names given to tracts of land. Newspaper records are a good source for locating people who may not have been in the area for a long time and who perhaps are never found in official records.

DEATH NOTICES FROM FREEWILL BAPTIST PUBLICATIONS 1811-1851 by David C. Young and Robert L. Taylor. 1985. 453pp. Purchased by the Society.

The abstracts in this volume are mainly from the Morning Star which first appeared in Limerick, Maine in 1826. The material is arranged in alphabetical order, with a section of death notices from the Morning Star and a section of death notices from other publications. This is followed by biographical sketches of church leaders, a directory of churches and agents, and an index to the biographical sketches and the directory. As every researcher knows, all deaths did not get recorded in the vital records, so newspaper obituaries can sometimes supply the missing information. This book should be quite useful to those with New England ancestry.

TO MARYLAND FROM OVERSEAS by Harry Wright Newman. 1985. 190pp. Purchased by the Society.

The bulk of this book contains an alphabetical listing of emigrants or settlers to Maryland. A brief abstract of important identifying data is given followed by the reference from which the material was obtained. The records are a compilation of nearly sixty years research by Mr. Newman who whenever he came across a reference to the European origin of a Maryland colonist, would make a notation. He does not include the naturalization records of German and Swiss emigrants, but refers the reader to the Hall of Records. This book will be a welcome addition to our growing reference collection of Maryland books.

TRACING YOUR ANCESTORS IN THE PUBLIC RECORD OFFICE by Jane Cox and Timothy Padfield. 1983. 114pp. A gift of William E. Miller.

This is a guidebook to assist those doing research in England at one of the Public Record Office repositories. It gives information on some of the major sources used for genealogical research. In addition to discussing the various types of records, the years of their availability and the call numbers, each section also includes a bibliography which includes published and unpublished finding aids. If any of our members plan a trip to England for genealogical research, this guide could save precious time by allowing one to organize the research possibilities before the trip is made.

MINUTES OF
THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
1 MAY 1985

The regular meeting of the Society was called to order 1 May 1985 at the Greenbelt Library, Greenbelt, Maryland, by the President, Cdr. Ed Wright. The minutes were approved as they had appeared in the April Bulletin. The treasurer, Eugene Ernest, reported that we had $5499.91 in the savings account and $634.20 in the Money Market Fund.

Several committee chairmen gave reports. Jean Sargent, Records Committee Chairman reported that a revision of the Bibliography of Source Records for Prince George's County was near completion. Shirley Wilcox, Special Publications Chairman, reported that tonight would be the last night for purchasing the 1828 Tax List of Prince George's County at the reduced price of $10.00. The regular price is to be $12.00 after this date. Elise Jennings reported that our Bulletin editor, Don Wilson, will need information for that publication earlier this month than in previous months.

The nominating committee reported for nomination the following slate of officers: President-Ed Wright, First Vice President-Karen Miles, Second Vice President-Dorothy Haney, Treasurer-Eugene Ernest, Secretary-Ann Beck. Elections will be held at the June meeting.

Ruth Stultz notified members that those persons who had ordered copies of the recent book by Dr. Ann M. Butler could pick up their copies at the meeting. Dr. Butler was in attendance to autograph copies and thanked the Society for inviting her to speak May 1983.

Bill Wiseman held a Bible Record drawing, but the recipient was not in attendance. The prize was a musical clown.

A short break was held followed by the program. Members were asked to share genealogical stories which were not to exceed four minutes. Four categories of topics were announced and the talks were rated by three judges: Pat Paulkovitch, Jim McCafferty and Irma Nicholson. The winners were Spurgeon Terry for the funniest story, Marge Miller for the most unusual story, Rosalie McCarthy for the most interesting story and Charlotte Couzantino for a new resource.

The meeting was attended by 61 people and was adjourned at 8:55 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Shirley Wilcox
Acting Secretary

EDITOR'S NOTES

With this issue I must sadly (and with a certain amount of relief) turn over the editorial scissors to our new editor, Bill Cramer. It has been fun, and a bit hair-raising, trying to beat the deadline each month. The fact that most members have actually received their BULLETIN before the meeting each month is due in large measure to the speedy, dedicated work of our distribution team, led by Elise Jennings. They include: Pat Paulkovich, Ruth Stultz, Shirley Jasper, Helen Rowe, and Norman and Mary Hannah. Many thanks to them and to everyone who submitted columns, articles, and news items each month. Cheers!

Don
