

Thank you for purchasing Shot-On-Location images from PRODEVSYs!

Shot-On-Location close-focused backdrops are a unique new way to create realistic photographs that appear to be "shot on location". The photographs in this collection will appear out of focus because they are focused on where your subject would be placed. This allows you to make a more realistic photo composite than if you had blurred a sharp focused photo. When composited with your studio photography, the soft focus effect gives realistic depth of field to your images.

The Shot-On-Location collections of soft-focused and close-focused modeling backgrounds are ideal for subject placement. These images are especially useful for backdrops in product catalogs, fashion photography projects, magazine advertisements, brochures, multimedia presentations, or video. All photos have been shot with the intended placement of a human figure or similar sized object. Shot-On-Location backgrounds are also effective for adding realism to computer rendered scenes and animations.
