

A black and white photograph of a large industrial building under construction. The structure features a complex steel lattice framework and a curved roof supported by multiple columns. A construction lift is positioned on the left side, with a worker visible on it. The sky is clear and blue.

WHAT'S DIFFERENT?

in less than one minute,
identify the three differences
in each set of photos

ANSWERS

