Well, you see, Minoru-san was telling me about Bundle, but she didn't remember what he looked like as a CG person and I checked the records, but they only had pictures of his robot body on file, and I was wondering ---

Enough!

Come with me into cyberspace and I'll show you Bundle.

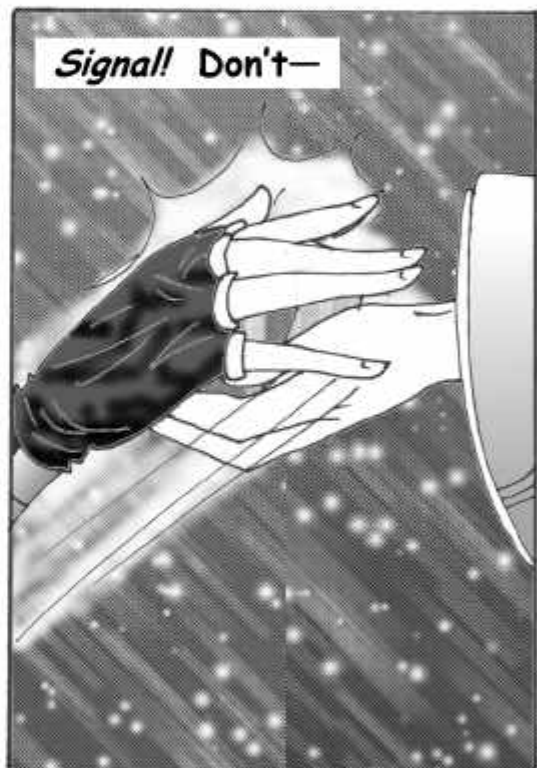

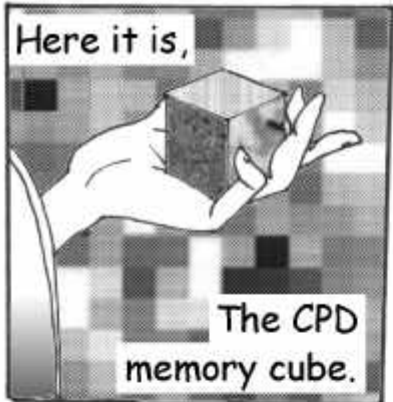

Wow...

Code,
is this
Your
home?

It's a place to stay.
"Home" for my sister and I is the computer at Cassiopeia's. While we're helping out here, Oracle gave us space for rooms.

You didn't see that.

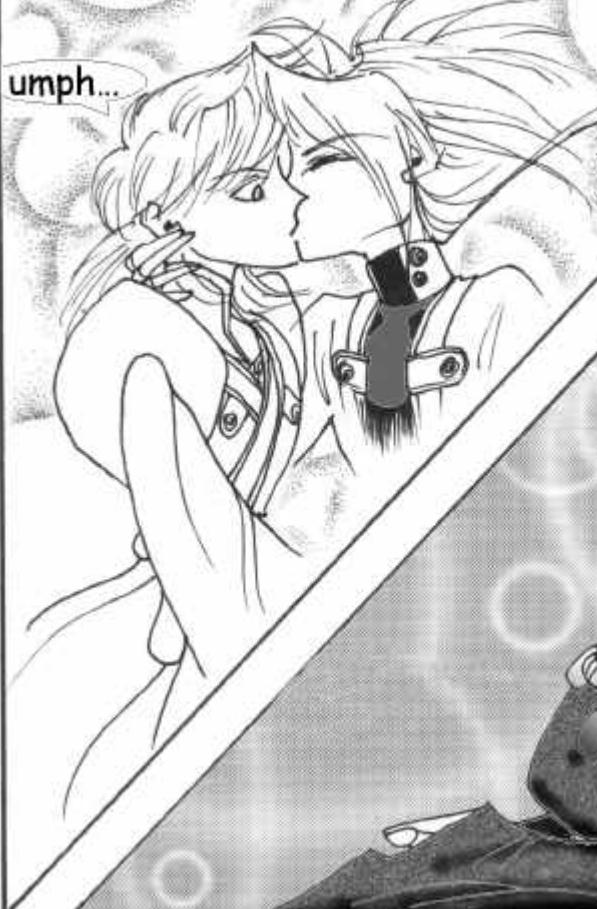

Yes, I did!

No, you—

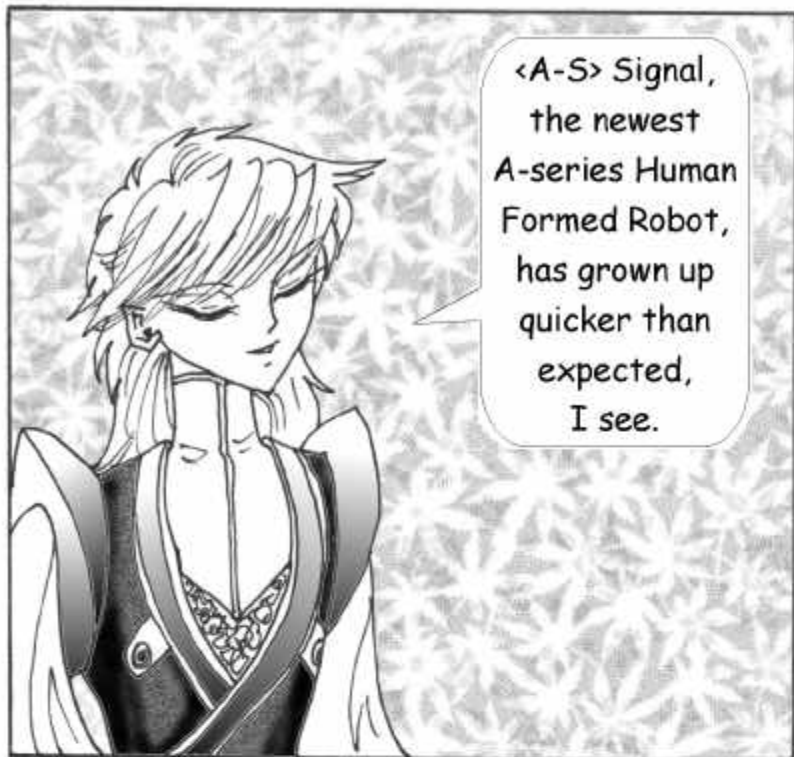

umph...

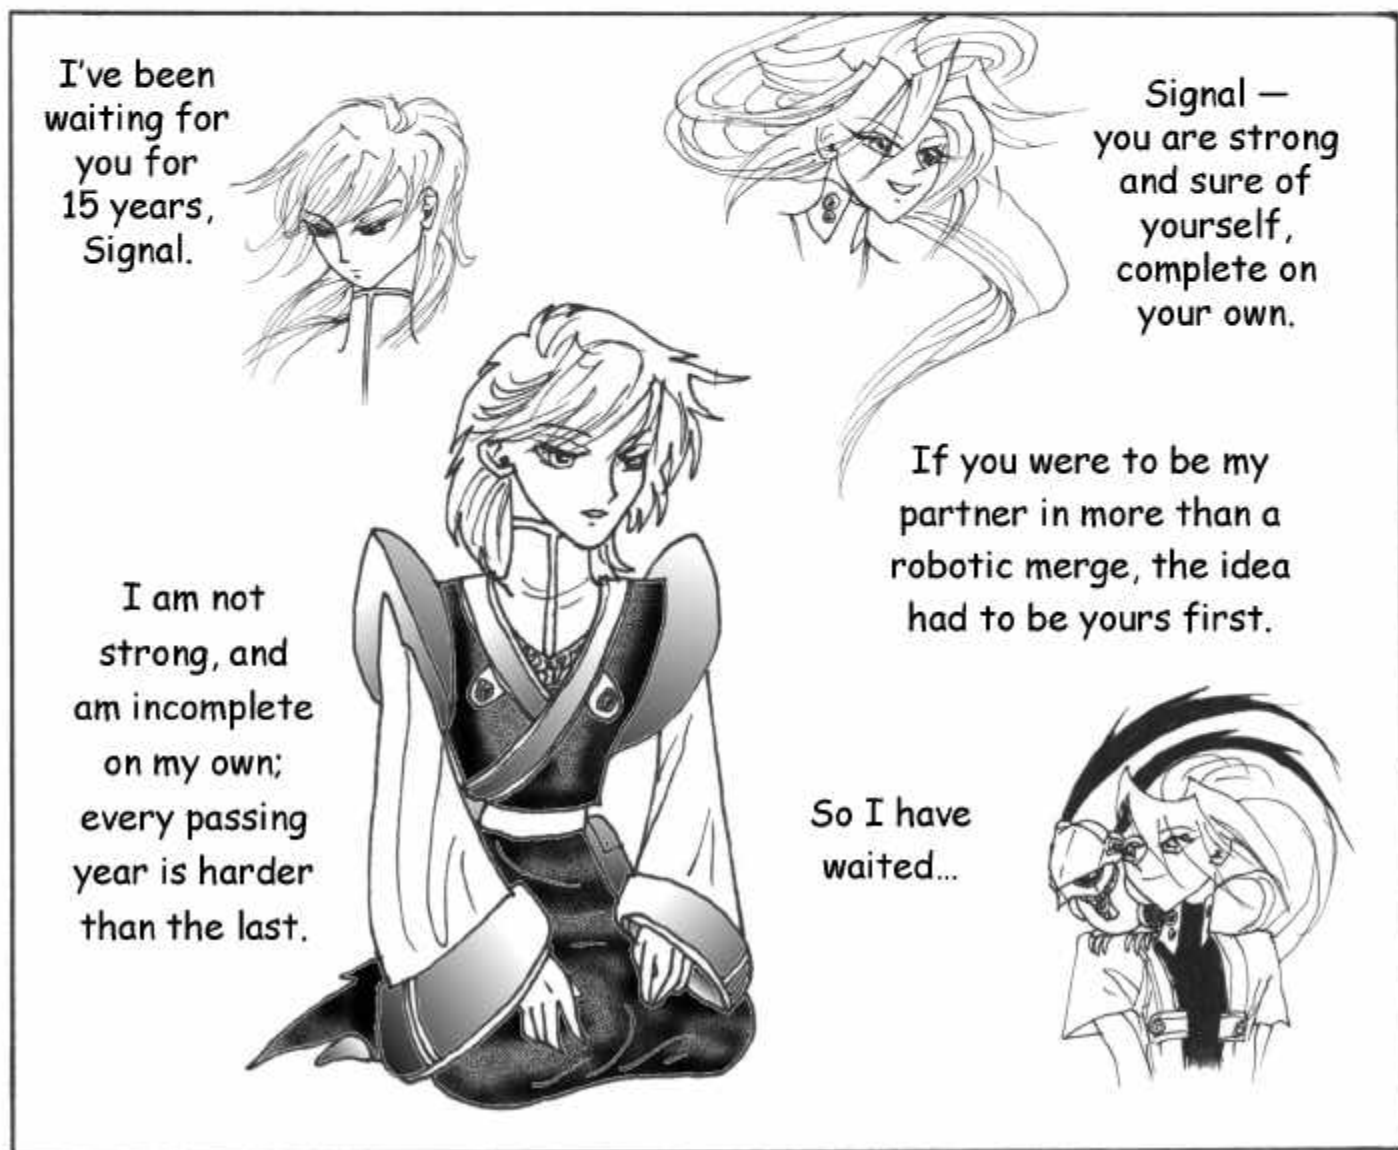

I'm your partner now, Code.

In Everything.

<A-S> Signal,
the newest
A-series Human
Formed Robot,
has grown up
quicker than
expected,
I see.

I've been waiting for you for 15 years,
Signal.

I am not strong, and
am incomplete
on my own;
every passing
year is harder
than the last.

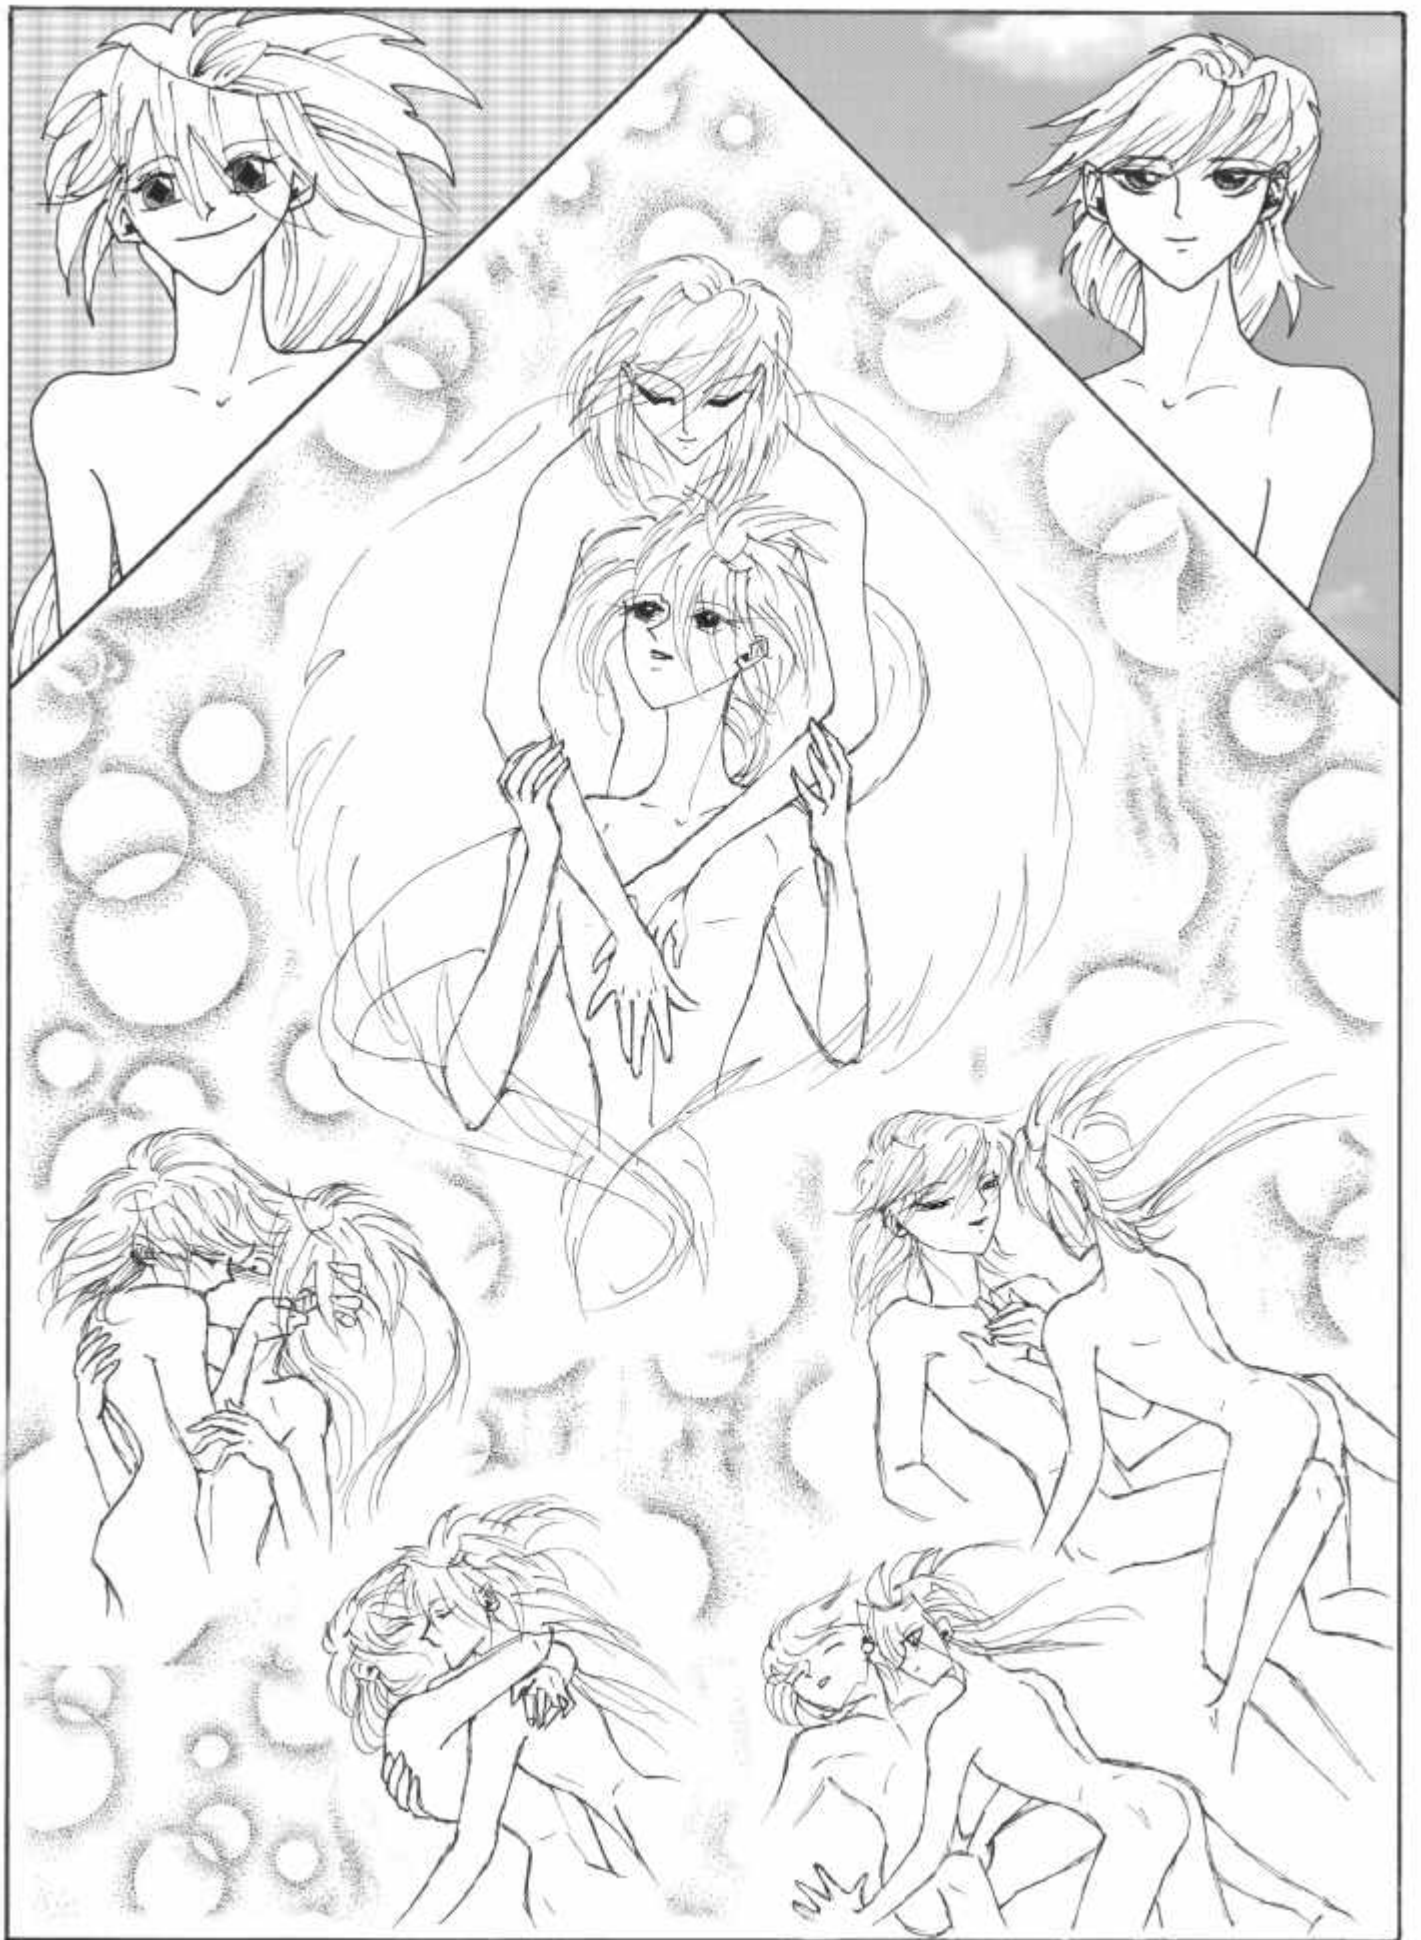

Signal —
you are strong
and sure of
yourself,
complete on your own.

If you were to be my partner in more than a robotic merge, the idea
had to be yours first.

So I have waited...

Signal.
You're not a knight
in shining armor;
instead, life, love,
and laughter shine
brightly in you.
And...
you've rescued me.

Partners; in Everything.
