Auto-Straighten

Examines an image and straightens it so that it appears square on the page. This options works best for images that are slanted in some way, such as those imported from a scanner, and have a solid color background.