

Browser Settings

The Browser Settings control which browser program you use to locate and view content on the World Wide Web. You can control whether you see pictures on a website or just text, the URL you return to when you click the Home button, and whether you see a toolbar and if the toolbar has text or not.