

A - Construction

- Will ('ll in the shortened form) is followed by a verb in the infinitive.
It is invariable.

Example: Tomorrow he will (he'll) play.

- In the negative form, will not is shortened to won't.

Example: It's too cold outside, they won't go out.

- The interrogative form is formed as with the other auxiliaries: will is placed before the subject.

Example: Will you help me, please?
