This little program will get rid of your Explorer "Cache" folder, and replace it with the same name. Why? So that you don't fill your hard disk with several megs of needless cache files and so that every time you start up, you begin anew and all are freshly downloaded. Comments or suggestions are welcome.   Thanks to John S. Reynolds for the idea and some of the code Buck Donham buckaroo@ilhawaii.net