AutoCompleter 1.0
© Catchy Software, 2001 support@catchysoftware.com
http://www.catchysoftware.com/autocompleter/

Registering
AutoCompleter is shareware. This means that you may try it out for free. If you decide to keep it, however, you are required to pay the registration fee of $15. Discounts are available if you order more than 20 copies ($12) or more than 100 ($10). If you wish to purchase a site license, please contact sales@catchysoftware.com.

How to Register
You can register in one of two ways:
1. Online registration using a web browser.
2. Offline registration using the Register application.

Online Registration
To register online, fill out the online order page at:
<http://order.kagi.com/?55N&S>

If your browser does not support encryption, use the following address instead:
<http://orders.kagi.com/?55N>

Offline Registration
To register offline, launch the Register application that came with AutoCompleter and fill out the form. Use email, postal mail or fax to send the registration to our payment service provider, Kagi. The address is to which you should send the registration is output by the Register program, but can be found here for reference.

Email: sales@kagi.com
Fax: +1 510 652 6589
Postal mail:
Kagi Shareware
1442-A Walnut Street #392-55N
Berkeley, California, 94709-1405
USA

Offline Registration
After registering, you will be sent a registration confirmation email. This may take anything from a few hours to several days, depending on the method of registration. The email will contain a personal registration code that you can enter into AutoCompleter Setup to register your copy.