This product is shareware and costs $19. Feel free to install it and try it out. If you decide to keep it, please register by opening the iValet™ application and following the supplied instructions, or through the ZiggySoft web site.

System requirements

iValet™ requires a Macintosh with a PowerPC or Intel processor (universal binary), and running under System OS X 10.3 or superior, with AppleScript installed.

Please test iValet to see if it is compatible with your system before you register. iValet is fully functional for 10 days after the first installation, so you can determine if it will meet your needs before you buy it!

For the Phone module: an External Telephone or a VoIP Account is required for the Phone module to work; for modem calls, you must have a modem, internal or external, connected to a standard telephone line (no DSL or Cable) and an external telephone, linked with a line splitter in parallel to the same telephone line.

Distribution

FURTHERMORE, THE AUTHOR MAY AT ANY TIME REPLACE, MODIFY, ALTER, IMPROVE, ENHANCE OR CHANGE THIS SOFTWARE.

Known Problems

- Type or paste from Clips module are generally slow, and sometime they may fail if there is a system palette generated from some other application in front of your target application text field.

Version History

Version 1.0.2

- Apple Address Book integration. The iValet package now includes an AppleScript plug-in to dial, through iValet, a phone number of the currently selected card on your Apple Address Book. In addition, iValet automatically stores your phone call in its "Recents" internal library, for your reference, and for a quick recall
 - iValet now can accept Apple Events
 - Fixed a bug that caused iValet sometime doesn't restore properly your preferred dial mode after restarting

Version 1.0.1

- Added a vertical mini-scrollbar that automatically appears if you add more than 9 clips per category (Clips module)
- Added support for storing a file text by dragging it directly to the iValet screen (Clips module)
- Added support to drag one or more files or folders from the finder and have their path stored in a clip (Clips module)
- Improved stability of the startup process
- Added a startup check on the initial location of iValet, in case it's accidentally located offscreen
- Fixed a bug that caused a possible category mismatch when user manually added a clip
- Fixed some minor bugs

Version 1.0b

- First public release
