

Try Our Games!

illumineX not only provides fun screen savers, we've also created a whole lineup of fun and addictive games!

We cordially invite you to visit our download site:

<http://illumineX.com/software/index.html>

and see all the games we have to offer when you need to give your mind a rest. You can download and play each game for free--with a restricted feature set.

BabelBlox - Break glass guilt-free...and challenge your planning skills at the same time!

HextriX - Addictive falling shape puzzle with beautiful tiles and odd angles!

RoX - Save the planet from the aliens hurling asteroids at us.

MarbleX - The best falling marbles game for Mac OS X!

MnemoniX - How's YOUR memory? Match the hidden tiles while you race against the clock!

RuniX - Unbelievably beautiful and challenging tile matching game!

Each game is only $14.95. However, since we want everyone to play all our games, we offer the Infinity Game PaX, which has all 6 games for a total of only $19.95. That's less than $4 each for world class games that are playable for hours and hours (and hours!).

If you like our free screen savers, please support us by trying out our games. We're sure you will love them!

Sincerely,

The Whole illumineX Team

Infinity Game PaX - 6 great Mac OS X Games for one low price!
