

This dialog is used to setup a special safeguard category. If a folder which is not empty doesn't fall into any of the programmed categories you defined, it should fall into this special category.