

This is the 6th group of cursors that I created for Windows 95.
Some are animated, all are interesting, there are over 200 animated cursors and some regular cursors.
If you use them and like them, send me a note, (and $ 5.00 to maintain the effort) and let me know. I have added some left handed cursors because lefties are people too.

To use them copy all the cursors to ..\windows\cursor
For Windows 95 select: 'Settings' - 'Control Panel' - 'Mouse' - 'Pointers' - Select cursor to change - 'Browse' - Select the cursors - 'Apply' - and have fun.

As with all shareware, try it first. If you like it, send me $5.0. In return for your $5. You'll receive:

The satisfactions of not being called a thief.
More Great cursors in the future.
And eternal happiness (or at least for a few days)

Please send U.S. currency in form of a money order or check, I will also try to notify people that registered JC-Cursors of new collections that are released.

These Copyrighted cursors has been released as shareware.
Please mail and make the check to:
