What Duzzit Do?

If you are running Word for Windows 2.0, you might have noticed that the + and -buttons for super and subscripting are no longer present on the standard Word for Windows button or Toolbar. SuperSub is a macro with functionality similar to the buttons in Word for Windows 1.x and more!

Have you ever thought that the scripted characters should be smaller than the standard sized characters you are using? SuperSub formats the selected text for two points sizes smaller than the current size and either raises or lowers the text by 3 points (raises for Superscript or lowers the text below the baseline for Subscript). After SuperSub formats a single letter or selection of text for superscript or subscript, SuperSub will return you to the standard point size and baseline position for your text.

Running the SuperSub Macro

If during installation, you chose to have ALT+S assigned for Superscripting and ALT+B for Subscripting characters, then these are the keys you will use in Word for Windows. Select a character or range of characters and press ALT+S to superscript or ALT+B to subscript. Otherwise choose Macro from the Tools menu, select Global Macros from the box labeled Show, and select either "super" or "sub". Choose the Run button or press the Enter key to run the selected macro. The macro named "super" will superscript your characters and the one named "sub" will subscript your characters.

Assigning a ToolBar Button For Super and Sub

To add a ToolBar button for the Super and/or Sub macro, do the following:

- 1 From the Tools menu, choose Options.
- 2 In the Category box on the left, select the Toolbar icon/picture.
- 3 Under Context, choose Global so that Toolbar change is available to all documents.
- 4 Under Show, select Macros.
- 5 In the Macros box, select the either the Super or Sub macro.
- 6 In box labeled Button, select a button for the Super or Sub macro.
- 7 In the Tool To Change box, select the position you want to insert the new button into and choose the Change button.
- 8 Choose the Close button to exit the dialog.

Note: If you would like to change, edit, color, or create buttons for SuperSub (a button for Superscripting and one for Subscripting), use the TBEedit program included with WOPR 2.0.
