

Compostings

Catch up on what's "growing on" in the Garden State with columnist Raymond Edel

Monday, February 14, 2011

Burpee reveals 2011 "I Can Grow" winners

Burpee Home Gardens has revealed the 2011 "I Can Grow" Youth Garden Award winners.

Selected from more than 220 applications from community and urban school gardens across the United States, this year's winners are:

- City of Inver Grove Heights Parks and Recreation Department in Inver Grove Heights, Minn.
- Kid Power, Inc., in Washington, D.C.
- Robles Elementary School in Tampa, Fla.
- Waterford School District in Waterford, Mich.
- West End IB World School in Nashville, Tenn.

Winners will receive up to 500 vegetable and herb plants, $2,500 toward garden supplies, five gallons of Daniels organic-based plant food, one hose-end sprayer, on-site layout and installation assistance from Burpee Home Gardens experts, and a Flip camera to document the garden's success.

The 2011 "I Can Grow" Youth Garden Award assists school and community gardens demonstrating well-developed and staffed plans for youth-centered educational programs that emphasize nutrition and food production, environmental awareness, social responsibility and scholastic integration.

Posted by Ray Edel on 02/14 at 09:02 AM

http://blogs.northjersey.com/blogs/compostings/burpee_reveals_2011_i_can_grow_winners/#When:13:02:17Z