Gardening Tips

Daytime

If you know anything about gardening, you've probably heard about a company called Burpee. They've been in the gardening biz for 135 years. Diane Hund from Burpee visits Daytime to talk about having the whole family "dig" in.

About Burpee Home Gardens

- Burpee has been around for 135 years, so seven generations have grown with Burpee.
- As part of Burpee's responsibility to get the next generation started gardening, they have launched the Burpee Home Gardens "I Can Grow" program.
- In its second year, the 2011 "I Can Grow" Youth Garden Award sponsors and supports urban school and community gardens in cities across the United States.
- This year, Burpee Home Gardens is installing gardens in Tampa Bay, Nashville, Washington D.C., Minneapolis and Detroit.
- In addition to working with schools through the "I Can Grow" program, Burpee Home Gardens is helping parents and families get their hands dirty by teaching them how to garden together
