What happened when Reed and Delphine Krakoff took over a manse that had been converted to apartments? See the results

"We were looking for a house that needed a lot of work," says interior designer Delphine Krakoff, laughing. "Something that would scare a lot of people! That's what we love to do—it's what we do best." She and her husband, Reed, the president and executive creative director of Coach and now of his self-titled line, had already transformed a traditional Upper East Side brownstone into a dazzling showcase for their adventures in design. The addition of three children under the age of five encouraged them to look for a project with more space.

Great New Plants! Garden Design

Great New Plants! Jenny Andrews sneaks a peek at the new plants featured at the Ohio Florists Association show.

I literally gasped when I saw the black-as-night Petunia 'Black Velvet' (perfect name) and its stunning companion, the black-and-chartreuse-striped 'Phantom' (pictured). Put either or both of these in a container for some jaw-dropping drama.
