

U.S. Dairy Sustainability Awards

Dairy industry recognizes 'best of class' in sustainable business

The U.S. dairy industry recognized "best of class" in sustainable business during a special ceremony in Washington D.C. on March 7. Winners of the inaugural U.S. Dairy Sustainability Awards program included (from left to right) Mike Brubaker of Brubaker Farms, Mount Joy, Pennsylvania, Outstanding Achievement in Energy; Kenn Buelow of Holsum Dairies, LLC, Hilbert, Wisconsin, Outstanding Dairy Farm Sustainability; Bill Bennett of Oakhurst Dairy, Portland, Maine, honorable mention for Outstanding Dairy Processing & Manufacturing Sustainability; Andy Werkhoven of Werkhoven Dairy, Inc., Monroe, Washington, Outstanding Dairy Farm Sustainability; Marie Audet of Blue Spruce Farm, Bridport, Vermont, Outstanding Dairy Farm Sustainability; Bob Joblin of DF-AP, LLC, Gooding,

Idaho, Outstanding Achievement in Energy; and Steve Rowe of Darigold, Inc., Seattle, Washington, Outstanding Dairy Processing & Manufacturing Sustainability. PD

—From Innovation Center for U.S. Dairy news release