

01/06/2012

Good morning!

Click the links here to connect to the latest local and national news impacting your farm business. And check back throughout the day to look up markets and other information.

Thanks for reading.

Sincerely,
Fran O'Leary, Editor
foleary@farmprogress.com

Market Commentary

Morning Call by Bryce Knorr

Rain forecast eases for Argentina, while USDA should cut estimates of corn stocks on Thursday. (Commentary updates after 7:10 a.m. Central Time)

Afternoon Recap by Arlan Suderman

Traders remain cautious ahead of the approaching weekend.

Local News

Wisconsin Holstein Juniors Shine At State Convention

Natzke, Elloitt are state Holstein Boy and Girl.

New UW-Extension Program Helps Farmers 'Shift Gears'

Farm Business Transfers Topic of Upcoming PDPW Dairy Webinars

USGC Corn Mission Told to Expect Strong Chinese Demand

Gray Wolf Removed From Endangered Species List

Wisconsin Holstein Juniors Shine At State Convention

National News

This Will Not Be the Usual Farm Bill Debate

American Farm Bureau economist says there is less than 50/50% chance a farm bill will be completed in 2012

Livestock Call By John Otte

Cash cattle could drift lower again this week, tighter than earlier expected supplies buoy cash hogs.

MF Global Plot Thickens

Effort Aims to Collect Farmers' Stories

Farm Bureau President Recaps Challenges Ahead

FDA Moves to Reduce Use of Drugs

This Will Not Be the Usual Farm Bill Debate

Technology Update

Company Offers Rural School District Grants

Monsanto's America's Farmers Grow Rural Education grants are offered in two increments, $10,000 and $25,000.

Senninger Introduces New UP3 Dual Nozzle Carrier

Hobart Champion Elite Welder Is Light, Quiet, Powerful

New OpTill PRO Herbicide Gives Growers A More Complete Foundation

Aerial Application Scholarships Awarded

Company Offers Rural School District Grants

Livestock News

FDA Milk Residue Survey Underway

U.S. Food and Drug Administration starts milk residue sampling to test for wide range of products.

New Year is Time for Dairy Producers to Find Farm Energy Opportunities

Controversy Brewing over Poultry Cage Size

FDA Plans To Release New Food Safety Rules Jan. 4

Domino's Stuffed Cheesy Bread Satisfies Consumer Demand

FDA Milk Residue Survey Underway

Click here for online version.

For internal use only. Reprints available for purchase.