

The Standard Names Michael Klachefsky National Practice Leader for Workplace Possibilities Program

2011 APR 16 - (VerticalNews.com) -- Standard Insurance Company ("The Standard"), a subsidiary of StanCorp Financial Group, Inc., announced that Michael Klachefsky has joined the company as national practice leader, Workplace Possibilities'.

"We're pleased to welcome Michael to our team as we continue to expand our already robust Workplace Possibilities program," said Bob Tagmyer, director of National Partnerships for The Standard. "Michael brings more than 30 years in the absence management and productivity industry, and we look forward to utilizing his insight and experience to make our disability management offering even stronger."

In his...

In order to view the entire article, please read your options to the right