

Story Prewriting

In the prewriting stage for a story

- choose a story idea
- collect details that develop characters, setting, and plot
- decide the point of view or who will tell your story
- order events in the story in a way that makes sense
- brainstorm for images and other creative language