Story Prewriting

In the prewriting stage for a story choose a story idea

- collect details that develop characters, setting, and plot
- decide the point of view or who will tell your story order events in the story in a way that makes sense brainstorm for images and other creative language