

In the prewriting stage for a firsthand biography

¥ choose a person you know to write about

¥ identify details that help characterize the person

¥ identify one or more incidents that show why the person is important to you

¥ organize the details in a way that makes sense