Product Description:

Based on the ultra successful Duel Masters Trading Card game in Japan, Atari's Duel Masters: Sempai Legends puts players in the role of a kohia (Junior Duelist). The kohia receives a valuable Duel Masters card, handed down from his grandfather who was a great Sempai (senior duelist). Before the Sempai gets a chance to add it to his deck, a mysterious man steals it and now it is up to the player to travel the many towns and villages nearby in hopes of regaining the stolen property. Along the way the player will face many opponents and enter Duel Masters tournaments with the hope of one day becoming a professional Duelist.

Game Features:

- 180 creatures and spells consisting of 120 cards from the Base set and 60 spells from the Alpha expansion set, Evo-Crushinators of Doom™;
- Tutorial mode enables players to learn how to play the video game, as well as learn the rules of the Duel Masters trading card game;
- Players can interact with characters from the Cartoon Network TV show;
- Two-player head to head battles via the Gameboy Advance Link cable;
- Exploration of towns, villages and city arena's where players encounter various levels of duelists;
- Players can collect, trade and win incredible collectable cards.
