HASBRO INTERACTIVE PASSES GO WITH FOUR NEW INTERACTIVE MONOPOLY® GAMES IN 1999

LOS ANGELES (May 13, 1999) - Hasbro Interactive's crown jewel, the interactive Monopoly® game franchise, is continuing to grow in 1999. Proving that family-oriented games for the mass-market are red hot properties, Hasbro Interactive will extend the fun of wheelin' and dealin' to four new titles, including an all-new version of the classic Monopoly CD-ROM, a Monopoly game for the Nintendo® 64 platform, Monopoly Casino CD-ROM and Monopoly Jr. CD-ROM.

The original Monopoly CD-ROM, the first game to be published under the Hasbro Interactive brand in 1995, is one of the company's flagship titles. Now in its fourth season, Monopoly CD-ROM is still selling strong and appears regularly in the charts of best-selling computer games, most recently ranking #5 (for the week of 3/28 - 4/3/99 according to PC Data). The catalogue titles in Hasbro Interactive's Monopoly franchise - Monopoly CD-ROM, Monopoly Star Wars™ CD-ROM and Monopoly World Cup CD-ROM for the computer as well as Monopoly for the PlayStation® game console - combined have sold a stunning 2.5 million units to date.

New in 1999

A brand new Monopoly CD-ROM is on its way to the PC in '99. The game will be updated with 3D technology and all-new game options that make this game a true interactive family experience, including: options to customize the board to reflect the players' hometown or any theme; to import pictures to personalize real estate properties; to institute your own house rules; and, to choose one of five different city boards.
