

TONY WILKINSON

Director, Information Worker Business Group, Microsoft Australia

Tony Wilkinson is the Information Worker Business Group director at Microsoft Australia, responsible for the Microsoft Office System, which is a range of applications, servers and services targeted at improving personal, team and organisational productivity.

Tony has been at Microsoft for more than 10 years and has held several positions including sales, business development, marketing and technical roles.

Tony's previous marketing roles have included product management for Microsoft Office, Windows Desktop and Server operating systems, while his sales roles have included account management for telecommunications customers, and business development in hosting and Voice over IP.

Prior to these roles, he worked in the Internet Customer Unit of Microsoft, focusing on marketing for Internet Explorer, and spent three years in a Technical Sales role for Government and Corporate accounts.

Tony has been in the computer industry for 15 years, and has worked with other leading vendors and resellers prior to joining Microsoft.

Tony holds a Bachelor of Science majoring in Computer Science from the Australian National University in Canberra.
