THE CAST

DAVID DUCHOVNY plays Fox Mulder, the brilliant and sullen FBI agent whose belief in the existence of the unexplainable drives him to explore cases deemed unsolvable by the Bureau. For his work on "The X-Files", Duchovny won the 1997 Golden Globe for Best Actor in a Dramatic Series and received one prior nomination, as well as two Screen Actors Guild Award nominations and a TV Critic's Award for best Actor in a Dramatic Series. He also recently received two Emmy Award nominations: Best Actor in a Dramatic Series for "The X-Files," and a guest -starring appearance on the "Larry Sander's Show".

Last Year, Duchovny completed the lead role of Dr. Eugene Sands in the action thriller "Playing God". He received critical acclaim for his performance in the feature films "Kalifornia", "The Rapture", and "Julia has two lovers", in addition to roles in "Chaplin" and "Beethoven".

For television, he starred as Dennis/Denise Bryson, the transvestite detective in David Lynch's "Twin Peaks", and spent four seasons as the impassioned narrator of Zalman King's erotic anthology series "Red Shoe Diaries", which began as a feature length telefilm for Showtime.

GILLIAN ANDERSON is Dana Scully, Agent Mulder's partner, a medical doctor who provides the skepticism to Mulder's beliefs. For her performances on "The X-Files", Anderson has earned the respect of television fans and critics alike who have cited her character's intelligence, wit and integrity as veritable breakthroughs in television drama. In 1996, Anderson won her second Screen Actors Guild award as well as a Golden Globe award. The following year she was awarded an Emmy, Golden Globe and Screen Actors Guild Award for best dramatic actress in a television series.

Anderson studied at the Goodman Theater School at Chicago's De Paul University, where she obtained her BFA degree. She also received a Theatre World Award for her performance in Alan Ayckborne's "Absent Friends" at the Manhattan Theatre Club.

Anderson's other film and television credits include an episode of the Fox series "Class of '96". She also appears in the Miramax film "The Mighty", directed by Peter Chelsom and starring Sharon Stone and Gena Rowlands. She has a cameo role in the independent film "Chicago Cab", also starring John Cusack and Julianne Moore.

MITCH PILEGGI is FBI Assistant Director Walter Skinner, Mulder and Scully's superior. Pileggi has been with "The X-Files" since the latter part of the show's first season. Pileggi's feature film credits include "Basic Instinct", "Vampire in Brooklyn", "Guilty as Charged" and "Shocker". On television, Pileggi had a recurring role on "Dallas" and has made numerous guest-star appearances on such shows as "China Beach" and "Hooperman". He also appeared in the television movies "Trapped" and "Knight Rider 2000".

WILLIAM B. DAVIS stars as the mysterious Cigarette-Smoking Man. His film credits include "Unforgettable", "Hitman", "Omen IV: The Awakenings", "Matinee", "Beyond the Stars", "Look Who's Talking", "Head Office" and "dEad Zone." Among his television credits are principal or guest-starring roles on "The Outer Limits", "Poltergeist", "Sliders", "Nightmare Café", "MacGyver", "21 Jump Street", "Wiseguy" and "Airwolf".

CHRIS CARTER (Writer/Producer) is the creator, executive producer and frequent writer for Fox's award-winning series "The X-Files" and "Millennium".

Born and raised in Bellflower, California, Carter graduated from California State University at Long Beach with a degree in Journalism. He then spent thirteen years working for Surfing Magazine as a writer and Senior editor, travelling abroad extensively.

In 1992, Carter began creating and developing television projects for Twentieth Television (now Twentieth Century Fox Television) under his production company banner, Ten-Thirteen Productions, including "The X-Files", which won the Golden Globe Award for best drama in both 1995 and 1997, was Emmy nominated twice for Best Drama and won a Peabody Award for Excellence in Broadcasting. He is also the creator of the critically-acclaimed drama "Millennium", which focuses on behavioural profiler Frank Black, played by Lance Henriksen. For his work as a writer on "The X-Files", Carter has received an Emmy Award nomination, a Writers Guild nomination and a nomination for directing from the Directors Guild of America.

FRANK SPOTNITZ (Co-Producer), currently the Co-Executive Producer of "The X-Files," co-authored the story for the feature film with Chris Carter. He has written thirteen episodes of the series, including "End Game", "731", "Leonard Betts" and "Momento Mori". Spotnitz also served as Co-Executive producer of "Millennium" during its first season.

MARK SNOW (Composer) created the eerie, unforgettable themes for both "The X-Files" and "Millennium". His long list of credits include the series "La Femme Nikita", "NowhereMan", the mini-series "20,000 leagues Under the Sea" and "Night Sin" as well as dozens of television series.
