

The Ellis Island Experience*[™] Product Features

The Ellis Island Experience[™], created in conjunction with The History Channel® and The Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Foundation, Inc., is a fascinating portrait of American Immigration as experienced by those who passed through Ellis Island on their way to a new life. Through thoughtful integration of dramatic recreations, interviews, manuscripts and photographs, The Ellis Island Experience[™] brings to life the story of American Immigration on PC CD-ROM.

Features:

- Hosted by National Public Radio's popular evening anchor, Robert Siegel
- Hundreds of rare historical documents, artifacts and photographs
- Over two hours of video from The History Channel and other sources, including exclusive original footage created especially for this multimedia production
- Interactive video vignettes that allow users to "experience" the drama of the immigration process
- Compelling audio narratives from the Ellis Island Oral History Project
- Comprehensive graphical timeline of 350 years of American immigration
- Artifact viewer allows users to examine photos and documents in minute detail
- Researcher feature searches World Wide Web for content related the topic the user is currently viewing
- Seamless Internet component automatically updates the CD-ROM content with new information
- Exclusive The Ellis Island Experience web site with the latest information on Ellis Island, exclusive webcasts, an online store and more
- Save and Print capabilities for text, images and transcripts
- Developed and published by SouthPeak Interactive.
- Available May 2000.

Minimum System Requirements:

Pentium 133 MHz processor; Windows® 95/98; 32 MB RAM; 4X CD-ROM drive; SVGA Graphics Adapter for 640 x 480 High Color (16 bit); 16 Bit Windows® compatible sound card; Microsoft® mouse or compatible pointing device; Internet Explorer 5.0 (provided); 28.8 kbps modem and Internet service provider required for Web access

The History Channel is a trademark of A&E Television Networks, registered in the United States and various other countries.