MICROSOFT GREETINGS 2001

SAY WHAT YOU WANT, HOW YOU WANT TO WITH MICROSOFT GREETINGS 2001

Do you spend hours finding the right greetings cards that show what you are trying to say? Now Microsoft® Greetings 2001 allows you to create your own cards to a professional standard and find the right words every time.

Microsoft® Greetings 2001 (AUS $54, NZ $59) allows you to design a quality greeting card in minutes. The program allows you to select from 12 000 high quality images and graphics, 4,000 greeting card templates, designs from over 200 artists, 500 animated greetings, and over 125 fonts. You can use any combination or create a totally unique greeting using your own messages, photos or artwork.

Microsoft® Greetings 2001 is fast, fun and most importantly, easy to use! The program includes a simple creation process that will walk you through selecting your project, designing it, then printing or emailing it.

With Microsoft® Greetings 2001 your messages can literally say whatever you want them to! Send greetings via email and add a recording of your own voice, or include a piece of music, animation or sound effects to send a truly personal message.

You can also use Microsoft® Greetings 2001 to design invitations and announcements to suit any occasion. No matter whether you are sending a reminder to 100 people about an upcoming event, or a thank you note to your best friend for always being there, Microsoft® Greetings 2001 can help you create a perfect greeting.

Show them you care with the personal touch of Greetings 2001.
