

Michele Garra
Managing Director
Sony Pictures Home Entertainment

Biography

Michele Garra is an internal representing governor of the Sony Foundation Australia.

Michele is the Managing Director of Sony Pictures Home Entertainment (SPHE), a position she has held since 1996. A dedicated entertainment industry specialist, Michele has held various marketing roles in the film industry including the position of Marketing Director for SPHE.

In 2002, Michele was elected Chairman of the Australian Visual Software Distributors Association (A.V.S.D.A) and now holds the position of Vice Chairman, representing the Video and DVD distributors on key industry issues including piracy and classification.

Michele is married to Charlie and has two daughters.