Leipzig, Germany, August 22-26, 2007: The wars of the future will be fought online, and the future begins at the Leipzig Games Convention with a showcase of Warhawk™ - delivered to you by Sony Computer Entertainment Europe and Incognito Entertainment. Warhawk brings you an online realm of multiplayer military battles in which only the fiercest, most visionary and most disciplined teams of soldiers can hope to carry the day. Available both as a download from PLAYSTATION®Store and on Blu-ray disc this summer, Warhawk is set to truly redefine what online multiplayer gaming is all about.

Exclusive to PLAYSTATION®3 (PS3™) and only playable online via PLAYSTATION®Network (PSN), Warhawk will pit teams of gamers from across the world against one another in a melee of armed combat with squad action coordinated by live voice communication. Fend for yourself online or enlist in a team of Eucadian or Chernovan forces and make your stand in one of several game modes: go for all-out killing in Team Deathmatch, assault and conquer in Zone mode or raid with pinpoint precision in Capture the Flag. Whether you wage war on foot, at the controls of a tank, a military jeep or from the cockpit of the fearsome Warhawk, there'll be non-stop action ahead. You'll join an elite online community of teams and clans: all with full stat-tracking support, rankings, leaderboards, badges and awards to recognise the most driven warriors on the battlefield.

You'll be able to soar above the battlefield in a Warhawk as you lock your missile sights onto your adversary in a dogfight to the death. You'll steer the Warhawk in flight using the roll, pitch and yaw motion controls of the SIXAXIS™ Wireless Controller. You'll experience the intensity of vast assault tanks as they move against enemy positions. You'll man gun emplacements to the last clip of ammo as waves of hostile troops crash against the walls of your base. You'll take on enemy jeeps equipped with your battlefield reflexes and weapons ranging from rockets, flamethrowers, mines, surface-to-air missiles, heavy machine guns, grenades, rifles and more. Whether it's on the sky, on foot or in grounded vehicles, remember one thing: you're always somebody's prey.

You'll relay instructions and coordinate your squad actions by using the JABRA 135 Bluetooth headset bundled with the Blu-ray disc version of the game. This is your chance to voice chat and organise your troops against your enemy clans. Very compact, simple to use and with up to 8 hours talking time, the JABRA 135 Bluetooth headset is the perfect ally to survive Warhawk's adrenaline-fuelled military action. You'll lay down covering fire as comrades risk all to capture your enemy flag and territory.

It'll be all-out war on land and in the air, through ruined towns and across vast abandoned islands. With hundreds of square kilometres of fully interactive terrain, no two battles will ever be the same – and with the High Definition graphics and fully integrated online support that only the power of PS3™ can deliver, Warhawk is set to put the world of online combat gaming on high alert for its arrival this summer.
