Garfield – A Tail of Two Kitties

Description

Having snuck into Jon's luggage to travel to London, Garfield befriends the royal cat Prince XII and the other animals at Carlyle Castle. After a long day, Garfield is relaxing in his hotel when he receives a royal invitation from Prince: "Dear Garfield... to celebrate... royal portion of lasagna... in two hours time..." Swoosh! Garfield is already out the door. His stomach is nearly empty so there is no time - much less lasagna - to waste!!! When he arrives at the castle the gates are closed and no one is there to let him in. Will he make it inside in time or miss his dinner invitation? Players will help the famished feline find an alternative way into the castle as they guide him through the exciting environments from the movie.

A Tail of Two Kitties is a fresh game experience mixed with special DS specific elements and lots of fun. With a choice of ways to overcome many of the challenges the player must use their creativity and logic to find the best solution.
