Brand overview

Noddy is a little wooden boy who lives in his own little House-for-One in Toyland. Noddy got his name because his head is on a spring and when he gets excited his head just can't stop nodding! Noddy loves driving his friends around in Toyland and delivering parcels in his little red and yellow taxi. He also uses his airplane to get around visiting all the paces in Toyland.

Noddy is kind and honest but he often gets into trouble either through his own misunderstandings or because someone has played a trick on him – like the naughty goblins Sly and Gobbo.

- Noddy was created by British author Enid Blyton in 1949
- He is featured in over 150 books and four previous TV series (in 1950s, 1970s and 1990s)
- #1 Preschool character on UK TV (since series re-launch in 2002)
- New CGI format airs on PBS Kids in US
