

The cover art for Discworld Noir is a dark, noir-style illustration. In the center, a grimacing, yellow, multi-limbed creature is being ridden by a woman in a blue dress and a man in a cowboy hat. A large, blue, hooded figure with a scythe looms over them from the right. In the foreground, a snarling, multi-limbed creature is on the left. The background features a large, yellow, sun-like orb in a dark, rocky landscape.
