AC's TECHDisk

Volume 4, Number 1

A few notes before you dive into the disk!

· You need a working knowledge of the Amiga DOS CLI as most of the files on the AC's TECHDisk are only accessible from the CLI.

· In order to fit as much information as possible on the AC's TECHDisk, we archived many of the files, using the freely redistributable archive utility 'lharc' which is provided in the C: directory. lharc archive files have the filename extension .lzh.

To unarchive a file `foo.lzh`, type `lharc xfoo`
For help with lharc, type `lharc?`

Also, files with 'lock' icons can be unarchived from the WorkBench by double-clicking the icon, and supplying a path.

We pride ourselves in the quality of our print and magnetic media publications. However, in the highly unlikely event of a faulty or damaged disk, please return the disk to PiM Publications, Inc. for a free replacement. Please return the disk to:

CAUTION!

Due to the technical and experimental nature of some of the programs on the AC's TECH Disk, we advise the reader to use caution, especially when using experimental programs that initiate low-level disk access. The entire liability of the quality and performance of the software on the AC's TECH Disk is assumed by the purchaser. PiM Publications, Inc, their distributors, or their retailers, will not be liable for any direct, indirect, or consequential damages resulting from the use or misuse of the software on the AC's TECH Disk. (This agreement may not apply in all geographical areas.)

Although many of the individual files and directories on the AC's TECH Disk are freely redistributable, the AC's TECH Disk itself and the collection of individual files and directories on the AC's TECH Disk are copyright PiM Publications, Inc, and may not be duplicated in any way. The purchaser, however, is encouraged to make an archive/backup copy of the AC's TECH Disk.

Also, be extremely careful when working with hardware projects. Check your work twice, to avoid any damage that can happen. Also, be aware that using these projects may void the warranties of your computer equipment. PiM Publications, or any of its agents, is not responsible for any damages incurred while attempting this project.
