

Voyage Through the Bible Additional Information (Old Testament) Version 1.0.0

General Installation Notes

The installation program installs QuickTime video drivers and gives you the option to install one megabyte of the program to your hard drive. This greatly enhances the load time of the software.

If you already have a running version of QuickTime running on your system, you can bypass the installation of QuickTime. If you experience any problems with the video on the disk, please install the version of QuickTime that is shipped with this disk.

To start Voyage Through the Bible, double click the icon that appears in the new group of your Program Manager.

Video Requirements

This program has been designed to run with a video driver that is set to 16 or 24 bit color (thousands of color or more). This program will run in 256 colors, but video, artwork and transitions will not perform as well.

We recommend that your video driver be set to 640x480 resolution to allow the stories to play back full screen. The application will play in higher resolutions, but the display area used on the screen will be smaller.

General Navigation Notes

At any time during the program you may move to the next section in the interface by clicking anywhere in the Voyage Through the Bible screen. This will interrupt the current audio or video and take you to the next section.

In any of the text sections you can use the scroll bars to position the text. Clicking on the up/down arrow will move the display up or down one paragraph. Clicking anywhere on the scroll bar itself will move the scroll bar marker to that exact position in the document. The interface is not set up to drag the scroll bar marker.

Screen Savers

While viewing Voyage Through the Bible, you may want to disable your screen saver so it does not interrupt the viewing of the stories.

Technical Support

If you experience any problems running Voyage Through the Bible please call the technical support line at:

1-800-811-7010

M-F 7:00 am - 1:00 am (eastern time)
Sat and Sun 8:00 am - 8:00 pm (eastern time)