Legal notice

You may copy and distribute unregistered copies of Sloop but you may not sell them for profit. If you want to include Sloop in a shareware/freeware collection, contact me at <support@quadratic.com>. If you distribute unregistered copies in any way, you must include the Sloop Sail, the Sloop Rudder, supporting documents, and the Register program in the distribution. You may not distribute registered copies of Sloop except in the following two cases:

1. If you hold a site license for Sloop, you may distribute registered copies within your organization within a 160 km (100 mile) radius of your site.

2. If you hold a world-wide license for Sloop, you may distribute registered copies within your organization.

Use Sloop at your own risk. Graham Herrick and Quadratic Software make no warranties as to performance, merchantability, or any other warranties whether expressed or implied. No warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose is offered. Neither Graham Herrick nor Quadratic Software will be liable for direct, indirect, special, incidental, or consequential damages resulting from the use or misuse of Sloop. Some of these exclusions or limitations may not apply in all jurisdictions.

In other words, if the program does something weird, like damages a file or disk, I am not legally responsible. However, if it does   do something weird, I'd like to know so I can try to fix it in future versions. Please send bug reports to <support@quadratic.com>.
