

4. Meng

Youthful Inexperience.

The Judgement:

I do not seek the young and inexperienced fool, but he comes and seeks me.

When he shows the sincerity that marks the first recourse to divination, I instruct him. If he apply a second and third time, that is troublesome; and I do not instruct the troublesome.

There will be advantage in being firm and correct.
