

Label Preview

Use Label Preview to preview how a label will appear printed on a page. When you choose this option, the database fields names you placed on your label are replaced with the appropriate information you designate through the Label Preview Data dialog box in case you have no opened database, and with the information stored in the active record of the currently used database otherwise.

The keyboard shortcut for Label Preview is Command-E.