

In first year Calculus, we define intervals such as (u,v) and $(u,*)$
When we introduce the derivative

we assume that the function is defined and continuous in a neighborhood of a .