SysErrors Software Licence Agreement

USE OF THIS SOFTWARE IS SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING LICENCE AGREEMENT, WHICH YOU MUST HAVE PREVIOUSLY READ AND AGREED TO.

SysErrors is Copyright ©1997, "CPTech (Southern) Ltd".

Definitions
The following definitions apply to the terms as they appear in this agreement:
    The company means "CPTech (Southern) Ltd".
    The user means you, the person with the software on his computer.
    The software means the SysErrors program, and all accompanying files.
    Trial period means the 30 days immediately following the first use of this software.

Trial Period
The company grants a 30 days licence for the use of the software, starting from the date of receipt, after which time it must either be registered with the company, with payment of the appropriate fee, or destroyed.
This licence terminated, and under no circumstances may the software be used, beyond the free 30 days trial period, unless the aforementioned registration has taken place.
This licence covers use of the software both before and after the 30 days trial period.

Distribution
Unless explicitly stated in writing, the company does not grant permission to distribute the software for profit in any form, including but not limited to distribution via bulletin boards, electronic services, disk, magnetic or optical media. However, the company does hereby grant permission for the non-profit distribution of the unregistered version of the software, providing that the software is provided in its complete and unmodified form with all accompanying documentation. For the purposes of this licence, non-profit includes on-line services which charge a reasonable fee for access, and commercial shareware or freeware collections on disk or CD-ROM which charge for the disk or CD, not the software on it. The registered version of this software must not be distributed in any form.

Copyright
This software is owned by the company and is protected by United Kingdom copyright laws and international treaties. If the user copies it other than pursuant to the arrangements above, then this licence is terminated. In this event the user must destroy all copies, including those resident in computer memory.

Accepted uses
During the trial period, and upon registration the user is granted a non-exclusive licence to:
    Use one copy of the software on one computer.
    Keep another copy as a backup.

The user may not:
    Copy the software in any way other than that specified above.
    Modify the software in any way.
    Reverse-engineer, disassemble, decompile, or make any attempt to discover the source code or scripting of the software.
    Sub licence, rent, lease or loan the software or any portion of the software.

Warranty
Due to the complex nature of the software, the company cannot make any warranties. The entire risk when using the software is assumed by the user. In no event will the company be liable to the user for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special or exemplary damages, arising out of or in connection with the users use or inability to use the software, the breach of any express or implied warranty, or otherwise in connection with the software, even if the company has been advised of the possibility of such damages. This does not affect the users statutory rights. The total liability for this software is restricted to the registration fee paid.

Enforceability
If any part of this licence is proved unenforceable then it shall not affect the enforceability of the other parts.

Entire Agreement
The agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the user and the company. It supersedes any prior agreement concerning the software. It shall not be modified except by written agreement dated subsequent to the date of this agreement and signed by a director of the company. The company is not bound by any provision of any purchase order, receipt, acceptance, confirmation, correspondence, pr otherwise, unless agreed in writing.

Miscellany
This software shall not be exported to any country that is forbidden by the laws of the United Kingdom or United States of America. The user will pay any taxes related to this software.
