

Needle Rock campground is surrounded by towering rock walls. In the center of the campground is a slender rock formation where water has eroded an eye through the middle of the rock, giving the formation the appearance of a needle.