

Press this button to search from the current location in the list downward until a match is found for the current search parameters. If found, the matching record will be selected and positioned in the window to be visible. If no match is found before the end of the list, a beep will be sounded.