Press this button to search the entire list for all matches to the current search parameters.   If found, all matching records will be selected and the first matching record will be positioned in the window to be visible.   If no match is found, a beep will be sounded.