

Read Me

Launch If Monks had Macs by double-clicking on the "If Monks had Macs launcher".

If you wish to you can drag the "If Monks had Macs launcher" to the "Dock."

Sophie, our e-book reader, and our Journal can be opened from within the monastery library. However, they can also be opened directly from the desktop. You can just open the "Sophie folder" and then double-click "Sophie" or open the "Journal folder" and then double-click "Journal."

All of the help documents listed below are available just where you will want to access them inside the If Monks... monastery library. For those who wish to print them out on paper they are also installed on your hard drive in the same folder as this "read me" file. Below is a guide to the files contained in the "manuals for printing" folder.

ebookTips -- the introduction to and manual for the e-book reader we call, "Sophie."

Jour_help -- the manual for our journal

Jour_tips -- the idea book for the journal we call, "Get an Inner Life!"

M&C_game -- the introduction to and clues to help you finish the adventure game we call, "Meat & Conversation."

solitaire -- the introduction to and manual for the card game we call, "Killing Time."
