

Classic Fabrics Collection

[Volume One]

How did Classic PIO Partners cram 40 totally cool, RGB, drum scanned fabrics into only a 2-CD ROM collection? A collection with both high (266 ppi) and low (72 ppi) resolutions? Images that measure a whopping 9x11.5 inches?! File sizes that come in at 28-35mb for the high res and 2-3mb for the low res? And every image has its very own Alpha Channel Mask and hand-edited Path? who cares? All you really want to know is how to order. Just call us at: 1-800-370-2746 to get these wonders shipped to you today! Come on—you know you want 'em.
